Shaw, Bryce

Shaw, BRYCE. Some people just break the mold. A friend described Bryce "Boosey" Shaw as Fiercely Loyal, Restlessly Stubborn, Thoughtlessly Brave, Hopelessly Bright, Lovingly Kind, Eternally Childlike, Impish Prankster, Joyful Daredevil, Fearless Individual, Child of God. From his birth in Grand Junction, CO on June 19, 1986 to the car accident which took his life in Purcell, OK on August 21, 2004 he was never "average", or "standard", and always magnetically fun. Bryce's parents, Mike and Laurie, his brothers Ian, and Trent, his grandparents, aunts, uncles, cousins and friends ache in his absence. Visit his web-site at www3.caringbridge.org/tx/bryceshaw and share your Boosey stories! Visitation is scheduled for Friday evening from 7- 9:00 pm. at Ted Dickey Funeral Home. The family invites all who love Bryce to a memorial service at 1:00 pm Saturday, August 28 at Grace Presbyterian Church, 4300 W. Park in Plano. In lieu of flowers, gifts may be given to the Bryce Shaw Memorial Fund at Grace Presbyterian Church, Plano. Until we meet again, may God hold you in the palm of His hand. Shaw, Jessica Frances SHAW, JESSICA FRANCES, age 18, of Rockwall, TX, tragically passed away August 28, 2004, in an automobile accident. She will be dearly missed by her parents and sisters, along with the many people whose lives she touched during her short time. She will be lovingly remembered for her kindness, compassion, and sensitivity, along with the beautiful smile that seemed permanently displayed on her face. Her love of God, along with her positive and uplifting spirit, was contagious to all of those around her. Our world will never be the same without her. Jessica was born June 11, 1986, in Dallas, TX, to Michael and Lisa (Joplin) Shaw. She lived in DeSoto, Texas from birth until moving to Rockwall, Texas in 1996. Jessica accepted Christ when she was nine years old, and was baptized at Hampton Road Baptist Church on Christmas Day, 1995. A gifted singer, Jessica was selected for the All-Regional Concert Choir in 1998 and 1999, and traveled to New York to sing in numerous choir concerts. She sang the national anthem before all Rockwall High School volleyball and basketball games for four years, and also was invited to sing the national anthem at Lone Star Park in Grand Prairie. One of the highlights of her high school career was her nomination for homecoming queen in 2003. She served as secretary of FCCLA and was a DARE graduate. A gifted athlete, Jessica was a 4-year starter on the Rockwall High School varsity volleyball team, where she earned numerous awards and honors, including 2nd Team All District 9-5A in 2002 and 2003, RHS Most Valuable Player 2003, Leadership award 2002 and 2003, and Freshman of the Year 2000. Jessica's jersey number for all four years on the volleyball team was "10", and since no one else will ever be the perfect "10" like Jessica, Rockwall High School will be retiring her jersey this year, and the volleyball team will be wearing bracelets with Jessica's initials on them for the remainder of the season. During the past year, Jessica coached the Club MVP volleyball team, along with several teams at the Rockwall YMCA. She came to have as much passion for coaching volleyball as she did playing it, and she loved playing big sister to all of her players. Jessica graduated from Rockwall High School in 2004, and was currently enrolled to begin classes at the University of North Texas this fall. Jessica is survived by her parents, Michael & Lisa Shaw of Rockwall; sisters: Samantha and Stephanie Shaw of Rockwall; grandparents: Shirley Joplin of Irving, and Ken Joplin of Tyler; great-aunt, Mary Hubbard of Dallas; and aunts & uncles: Pat & Bill Barclay and children Jennifer & Billy of Richardson, James & Aleli Shaw and children Marie & Patty of Carrollton, Ken & Tammy Breazeale and children Alexis & Spencer of McKinney, Lori & Stephen Henley and children Hayden & Chase of Allen, Kevin & Shelly Joplin and children Breanna & Brady of Little Elm, and Melissa & Ray Hulse of Mesquite. She was preceded in death by her grandparents, James & Frances Shaw. Funeral services will be held 2:00 P.M., Thursday, September 2, 2004, at Lake Pointe Church, 701 E. I-30, Rockwall, TX, with Pastor Steve Stroope and Chris Florance officiating. Interment will follow in Rest Haven Memorial Park. The family will receive friends Wednesday evening at the funeral home from 6:00 to 8:00 pm. In lieu of flowers, the family wishes donations made to the Rockwall Animal Shelter, 385 S. Goliad, Rockwall, TX, 75087 or the Jessica Shaw Scholarship Fund, c/o Community Bank, P.O. Box 729, Rockwall, TX 75087. Donations may also be made to the...
