ARMENIA J. EHRKE April 14, 05

Armenia J. Ehrke, 90, was born in Bandera County, Texas Feb 17, 1915 to Sam and Eve Mae Jones. She passed away in Irving on April 6, 2005 after moving from San Antonio in December.

Her husband B. Edward Ehrke preceded her in death. Survived by son, daughter-in-law and grandson, Bill, Debbie and Bruce Ehrke of Irving, as well as her "special angels" in San Antonio, Rosalee Royal and Rose Marie Bonenberger. She was an adopted grandmother for her extended family, the Moores and Lamberts.

Mrs. Ehrke had a long teaching career at Ivanhoe Elementary. Late in life she became a world traveler, visiting almost every country open to Americans until she outlived her traveling companions. Her heritage as a Christian woman lives on not only in her family, but also in the many ladies who call her "Mrs. E" and who were her surrogate daughters, members of the Girls Auxiliary at Central Baptist Church in San Antonio from the late 1940's through the 1960's. Her wonderful "girls" have continued to love her through the years.

Visitation at Brown's Memorial Funeral Home was held April 10, 2005. Funeral services were held on April 12, 2005 at Porter-Loring Funeral Home, Downtown Chapel San Antonio, Texas with Rev. James E. Carey officiating. Interment was at Fort Sam Houston National Cemetery.

In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made to the American Diabetes Association, 4425 W. Airport Frwy., Irving, TX 75062.
