GARDNER, LANDRY THOMAS, 2, left us way too soon on February 22, 2005. Funeral and Burial: 12pm Friday at Bluebonnet Hills Funeral Home and Memorial Park in Colleyville. Landry was the second child of Andrew and LeAnne Gardner, born July 25, 2002, in Arlington, Texas. Always happy and smiling, revealing his deep dimples, Landry loved all "things that go" - cars, boats and especially his daddy's Harley-Davidson motorcycle. He would follow and copy his big sister, Lindsey, and could often be heard to remark, "I love my baby brother". Landry loved books, his favorite being "Go Dog Go". He always had his Blue Bear in tow, never retiring to bed without him. Landry loved his large extended family and was blessed to share many family gatherings, outings, holidays, birthdays and long weekends at the lake with the people he loved. Landry will live forever inside all of us who knew him. "My love will fly to you each night on angel's wings. Godspeed little man. Sweet dreams little man"

George, Jimalee Scott

GEORGE, JIMALEE SCOTT Was born in Blue Ridge, TX on April 9, 1917 to John Henry and Frances Elizabeth Scott. She died peacefully, after suffering with pulmonary fibrosis, September 1, 2005 at home in Plano, TX at 88 years of age. The Scott family resided in Collin County until moving to Hamlin, TX in August 1926. Her father was a farmer in the Flat Top community where she attended school, accepted Christ, and was a member of the Flat Top Baptist Church. Jimalee Scott and Roy F. George were married Nov. 28, 1933 at the First Methodist parsonage in Hamlin. They moved to Haskell the week they married and remained there until 1935. She and Roy joined the First Assembly of God in 1934 after receiving the Holy Spirit where they accepted the call of God to enter Gospel ministry. Jimalee and her husband were both credentialed Assembly of God ministers. During their years of ministry they pastored churches in Texas, Oklahoma, New Mexico and California. Jimalee ministered along with her husband, teaching Sunday School and training courses and was active in all areas of church responsibilities. She had two aims in life-to faithfully fulfill the purpose of God for her life, and to teach her children by word and example that serving the Lord is the most important thing in life. She enjoyed life, and especially the more abundant life that Jesus gives. She and Roy returned to Haskell on retirement in July 1984. Jimalee was preceded in death by her parents, 4 brothers, 2 sisters and 2 granddaughters. Survivors include her 93-year-old husband Roy, two sons and a daughter: Pastor R. Kenneth George and Patsy, and Pastor J. Don George and Gwen, Peggy and Pastor Randy Sims, eight grandchildren and eleven great-grandchildren. One brother Mickey K. Scott and numerous other extended family members also survive her. Visitation will be Monday evening from 6 to 8 pm at Donnelly's Funeral Home in Irving. A memorial service will be held Tuesday at 2 pm at Calvary Church, 4401 N. Highway 161, Irving. Burial will follow at Oak Grove Memorial Gardens. Donnelly's Colonial Funeral Home 606 W. Airport Fwy. George, Lydia Ruth

GEORGE, LYDIA RUTH GEORGE passed away this Sunday, January 2, 2005 at 7:20 am. She went to be with Jesus peacefully, after battling cancer for over 2 years. She was born on March 27, 1976, and has been in the hearts of everyone she has met since that time. She was a graduate of Naaman Forest High School, and Texas A&M University. Her genuine openness brought people close in faith in Christ Jesus and the life changing power that He has. She was so wonderfully transparent, that you could see Jesus right through her. She is survived by her husband, Mike, her mother, Sharon Van Hecke, her father, James Van Hecke, her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Willard Toole, and her 4 siblings: Stephen, Elizabeth, Mary, and James, each having families that will miss an amazing and loving wife, sister, and aunt. A memorial service will be held at Firewheel Bible Fellowship on Thursday, January 6th at 4:00 pm.
