JENSEN, RONALD L., 74, passed away on Friday September 2, 2005 in a local automobile accident. He was survived by his wife, GJ, 5 children, Julie Jensen-Meyer, Janet Jensen, Jeff Jensen and his wife Lou Anne, James Jensen and Jamie Jensen, 5 grandchildren, Hailey, Chani and William Jensen, Charles and Andrew Meyer. Born in a small village to immigrant parents, Ron was a native of Phillips Nebraska. With a loan from his uncle, Ron graduated in 3 years from Creighton University, of Omaha Nebraska with a degree in business. After just 7 short years he became the youngest partner ever to what is now known as KPMG. He resigned the comfort of this position in 1959 to form Life Investors, Incorporated, headquartered in Cedar Rapids, Iowa, a public insurance holding company. Ron built the company and sold it to Aegon, of the Netherlands, in 1981, now the 5th largest insurance holding company in the world. Two years later, he purchased United Group Association, commonly called UGA, a privately held independent insurance agency that primarily specialized in health insurance and related products for the self-employed market. Ron made a commitment to the sales agents and employees of UGA, if they would commit to growing the agency, he would commit to providing them a way to have ownership in their company. Holding true to his agreement to the sales agents and employees, in 1983 Ron founded UICI, headquartered in North Richland Hills, TX and had served as Chairman of the Board since January 1984. UICI is a diversified financial services company with interests in life and health insurance and student loans. Ron's business interest also includes diverse venture capital investments. As a visionary in the corporate for-profit world, Ron used his expertise to become a leading social visionary in the Philanthropic world. His entrepreneurial spirit and business culture were the spring board for expansion on the philosophy; "not only give a man a fish and you will feed him today, teach a man to fish and you will feed him for the rest of his life; but to change the entire fishing industry." Finding social innovators such as Ashoka to introduce leaders to leaders around the world, who shared like philosophy, he focused his efforts in the United States only to find that it will take a global society of extraordinary individuals educated in social investment to impact and respond effectively to social challenges around the world. Just a few of the national organizations that Ron invested in were: College Summit in Washington DC, InterFaith Youth Core in Chicago, Positive Coaching Alliance in Palo Alto, California and Catalog for Giving, New York City. While he was heavily invested across the United States, Ron felt very strongly about supporting local organizations including, HOPE Farm, Ft. Worth, Irving Healthcare Foundation, Irving, Attitudes and Attire, Dallas, Collin County Children's Advocacy Program, Plano, Still Creek Ranch, Bryan and the Dallas Leadership Foundation, Dallas. Ron's belief was that "by opening your eyes and seeing what the other person might need will open your eyes to what you could do to better this world." Funeral services will be held at 11:00 AM Wednesday, September 7, 2005 at S. MacArthur Church of Christ, 1401 S. MacArthur Blvd., Irving, with Pastor Norma Cooper officiating. Ben F.
