PATTY RUTH LOUDERMILK

Patty Ruth Loudermilk was born March 23, 1931 to Carroll and Frankie Cloud Loudermilk in Comanche, TX.

In an era when few women went to college, much less someone with cerebral palsy, she received her Bachelor of Science degree from Texas Women's University in 1954. Overcoming more physical and health problems than most people would ever have, she went on to work at The Lighthouse for the Blind in an extremely difficult field with near impossible odds for success. Her task was to evaluate, test and train people with both visual and hearing impairments, and in fact, she achieved a tremendous amount of success before crippling rheumatoid arthritis forced her into early retirement in 1981.

On the morning of October 14, 2005 she finally lost her valiant fight to live, a battle she had been waging since birth. She was loved and admired very much by all who knew her, especially her family.

Pat will be greatly missed by her sisters, Jo Dunn and Sherrilan Reeves; brother-in-law, Jim Reeves; nephews, Frank Dunn and his wife, Tave, Philip Dunn, Dr. Patrick Reeves and his wife, Karla, and Carl Reeves; great nieces and nephews, Lauren and Zachary Dunn, Payton and Landon Reeves.
