McBee, Margaret Woodson

McBee, Margaret Woodson, beloved mother, grandmother, and sister passed into life after death on March 2, 2005 after a valiant battle with cancer. Born December 12, 1917, she was the second daughter and fourth child of Bertha and L.R. Woodson of Denton. She graduated from Denton High School and TWU in Denton, and received her Masters Degree of Education at UNT in Denton. She taught in Argyle and Farmers Branch before retiring from Carrollton ISD after 23 years of teaching. She was a member of Highland Baptist Church in Denton. She was a member of Eastern Star and Texas State Teachers Association, as well as National Educators Association and a Life Member of Texas P.T.A. She was preceded in death in 1985, by husband Fred R. McBee, her father L.R. Woodson, her mother Bertha Amelia Thomason Woodson, three brothers Charles, John, and R.O. "Mose" Woodson and one sister Lillian Lohrke. If she were standing here today, she would say...

"Please don't grieve for me, it makes me sad. Be happy; love one another, for I will be waiting for you with open arms on the other side". Her attitude exemplified the value she places on education and children, and it guided the work she did as a professional educator during her 87 years with us. After raising five sons, she also raised and nurtured two grandsons. She was a good and loyal friend to many throughout her life. She held a special fondness for her friends at the VFW Post 2205. Survived by her children Rives and Kay McBee of Irving, Freddie and Sara McBee of Denton, Ronnie McBee of Whitesboro, John and Nell McBee of Gainesville, and Jimmy McBee of Whitesboro. Nine grandchildren: Kayla Dyess of Bullard, Texas, Kathy Miller of Irving, Gary McBee and April Leatherwood of Denton, Damon McBee of The Colony, Kirk McBee of Gainesville, Angela McBee of Roanoke, Mark McBee of Denton, and Michael McBee of Dallas. Nine great-grandchildren: Taryn and Carly Dyess, Corey Miller, Megan and Cody McBee, Ryleigh and Kinley Leatherwood, Jacob McBee and Trevor McBee. Her surviving siblings are one brother Marion Woodson of Irving, two sisters Bertha Milhollin of Whittier, California and Mildred Harper of Allen. She was also survived by sisters and brother in marriage Melba Woodson, Joye Woodson and Thurman Harper. Survivors also include a host of cherished nieces, nephews and friends: those who faithfully and lovingly cared for her, namely the late Dr. William "Mack" McCormick and Dr. Jitendra Bhatt, Ida Ritchie of Sanger, Janet Gaines and Betty Wright of Denton and Ann's Haven Hospice of Denton. To each of them, the family expresses their deepest gratitude. The family will receive friends from 7 to 8 pm on Friday, March 4, 2005 at the Mulkey-Mason Jack Schmitz & Son Funeral Home in Denton. Services are scheduled Saturday, March 5, 2005 at 11:00 am at Mulkey-Mason Jack Schmitz and Son Funeral Home Chapel with the Rev. John Woodson Jr., her nephew, officiating. Internment will follow in Jackson Cemetery, Krum, Texas. Pallbearers will be her grandsons and nephews: Gary McBee, Mark McBee, Michael McBee, Kirk McBee, Damon McBee, Shannon Woodson, Larry Woodson and Charles Woodson. Memorials may be made to the American Cancer Society, Highland Baptist Church or a charity of your choice. Mulkey-Mason Funeral Home Jack Schmitz and Son Denton TX 940-382-6622

Burney and Leigh belonged to First United Methodist Church in Irving and helped found Meadowbrook Methodist Church in Ft. Worth. Caring for others, hard work, honesty, a strong sense of responsibility, and a fun loving sense of humor were Burney’s personal attributes to share with all who knew him. Burney served as a source of strength and support for his family, many friends, and business associates with pride. His word could always be trusted.

A special gift for fun was a source of pleasure for his five grandchildren and the children in his neighborhood that loved him as their “Neighborhood Grandpa”. You could often find him in the audience of any activity or sporting event for his grandchildren or neighborhood kids. Through his words and actions, he showed how valuable they were to him and how to care for the important things in life - family, friends, and community.

Burney was preceded in death by beloved grandson, Freddy Younghold, and is survived by his wife, Leigh, and his three daughters and sons-in-law, Margaret and Ted Anthony, College Station, Texas; Susan and David Patrick of Dallas, and Patti and Steve Younghold of Lewisville; and grandchildren, Joshua Younghold, Zac Younghold, Kyle Anthony, and Brendan Anthony. He also loved his many nieces and nephews and greatly appreciated his doctors and nurses that cared for him.

A memorial service was held 10 a.m. Friday, Feb. 25, 2005 at First United Methodist Church Chapel, 211 W. Third St., Irving with a graveside service followed at DFWM National Cemetery, 2000 Mountain Creek Pkwy, Dallas, TX. The family received friends from 7-9 p.m. Thursday at the funeral home.

Burney suggested that any gifts or donations go to the VNA Hospice Care, 1440 Mockingbird Ln., Ste 400, Dallas, TX 75247, First United Methodist Church, Shriners Hospitals, 1212 Hella Shriners, 2211 Roullet Rd., Garland, TX 75043, or to a veterans group of one’s choice.

McCormick, James E.

McCORMICK, JAMES E. McCORMICK of Irving TX, born in 1927 in Providence, Rhode Island, died February 2, 2005 after a long battle with cancer. We are profoundly saddened by the passing of this extraordinary man - respected, admired and loved by all those privileged and honored to have known him. He served in the U.S. Army Air Corps in World War II and graduated from Boston University and Massachusetts Institute of Technology. In 1953 Mr. McCormick began his career as a geologist with Sun Oil Company and became exploration manager in Beaumont, TX in 1967. In 1977 he was appointed vice president of the newly formed Sunmark Exploration Co. He remained with Sun and its related companies throughout his entire career, rising to the rank of President of Sun Exploration and Production in 1987 and subsequently President and COO of Oryx Energy before his retirement in 1992. He also founded McCormick Enterprises and remained active in investments. His numerous other business and charitable activities included director of BJ Services Company, Lone Star Technologies, Tesco, Santa Fe Snider Corp., Dallas National Bank, Texas Commerce Bank - Dallas, Range Resources, Oryx Energy, Knights of Columbus and United Way of Dallas. He was an avid and accomplished golfer and a member of Los Colinas Country Club, Northwood Country Club of Dallas and the Dallas Petroleum Club. He was also a member of the Chapel of the Incarnation of the University of Dallas and numerous scientific and professional societies. Above all, he loved his family who are deeply saddened by his loss. He leaves his beautiful and loving wife of 52 years, Catherine Sullivan McCormick, of Providence, RI and his beloved children, Daniel McCormick and wife, Dr. Barbara Lister, of Houston, TX, Catherine Sowell and husband, John Sowell, of Marietta, GA, Bernard McCormick and wife, Andrea McCormick, of Edmund, OK, Michael McCormick and wife, Kimberly McCormick, of Dallas, TX, Eileen Meyers and husband, Robert Meyers, of Nacogdoches, TX, and Robert McCormick and wife, Cynthia McCormick, of Colleyville, TX, together with his devoted sister, Lillian Dionne, and eighteen grandchildren: Kate, Elizabeth, James, Hannah, Benjamin, Michael, Michelle, Thomas, Elizabeth, Sullivan, Brennan, Keegan, Maguire, Matthew, Christopher, Timothy, Macy and Riley. He also leaves many others whose life he touched with his generosity, integrity and sense of humor. The rosary will be held at 7:00 PM, Friday February 4, 2005 in the Chapel of Sparkman/Hillcrest Funeral Home, 7405 W. Northwest Hwy., Dallas, TX. Funeral Mass will be celebrated in the Chapel of the Incarnation on the campus of the University of Dallas at 10:00 AM, Saturday February 5, 2005, Rev. Msgr. Milam Joseph, presider. Entombment will follow in the Mausoleum of Calvary Hill Catholic Cemetery, on Lombardy Lane. In lieu of flowers or gifts, remembrances may be made to the James and Catherine McCormick Charitable Foundation, 1908 Central Drive, Suite D, Bedford, Texas 76021 established by his children for charitable purposes as a gift to their parents, to the M.D. Anderson Cancer Center or to your favorite charity.
