Nava Jr., Henry "Hank"

 View/Sign Guest Book

NAVA JR., HENRY "Hank" 39, passed away Thursday, Dec. 1, 2005, in Fort Worth. Funeral: 1 p.m. Monday at Birchman Baptist Church. Burial: Greenwood Memorial Park. Visitation: 3 to 8 p.m. Sunday in Greenwood Independence Chapel. Hank was born May 17, 1966, in Austin. Hank was a loving husband, devoted father and son, a friend to all and a reliable public servant. As a family man Hank was known for his big heart, contagious smile, and his love of baseball and law enforcement. If you saw Hank with his family you saw the man that he was, a family man. Teresa and Hank met in Round Rock. In no time at all they were married and they moved to Fort Worth, where Hank transitioned his career from Austin's Park Police to the Fort Worth Police Department. Hank's children, KayLeigh and Justin, were the life force that drove Hank to do his job well, and they believed their daddy was the best in the world. Hank graduated from Round Rock High School and earned his law enforcement credentials from Travis County Police Academy. Hank Nava started his career as a law enforcement officer in 1988 at Austin Park and Police. He continued his law enforcement career at the Fort Worth Police Department. Two phrases can describe Officer Hank Nava, gung ho and ready for duty! His life's passion was to do what he was doing and to do it to the best of his ability. Hank's partners never questioned his ability to back them up, and knew that if he was there he would give his all in getting the job done safely, swiftly, and precisely. He was not only a partner in blue but a best friend to many; Hank had a tireless diligence to do what he knew God placed upon his heart to do in this life. The family would like to thank the Harris-Methodist Hospital, the law enforcement community; the city officials of Fort Worth, the citizens of Fort Worth, and his many friends for their prayers, love and support. Survivors: Wife, Teresa; daughter, KayLeigh; son, Justin, all of Fort Worth; mother and father, Nancy and Henry Nava of Round Rock; mother-in-law, Linda Cruz of Austin; stepmother and father-in-law, Marie and Ernie Cruz of Round Rock; sisters and brothers-in-law, Kathleen and Scott O'Donnell of Georgia, Deanna Nava of Round Rock, Lisa and Russell Putnam of Georgetown; grandmother, Trinidad Nava of Round Rock; sisters and brothers-in-law, Anna Cruz of New York, Lisa and Kevin Cleary of Round Rock; and many aunts, uncles, cousins, nieces and nephews. ,

Everett Nearburg (In Memoriam)

Everett Nearburg Rett Nearburg, an artist at the birth of his career, passed gently into God's embrace on Friday, January 14, 2005, at 10:40 p.m. Born July 1, 1983, Rett tenaciously lived each day to the fullest throughout his eleven-and-a-half-year battle with Ewing's Sarcoma. He loved Apple computers, art, video games, music and motorcycles. Completely lacking self-pity, Rett volunteered for numerous Phase 1 drug trials, often bearing significant pain and discomfort. Whenever cancer stole one aspect of his life, he turned another page and charged ahead. He lived joyously and passionately, full of humor, wisdom and grace. We were blessed by his courageous presence in our lives. Please visit: www.rett.org to share our son's legacy.
