Raley, Billy James

RALEY, BILLY JAMES, Born May 15, 1942 in Spur, Texas, died at his home in Irving on August 24, 2005 after battling cancer for several years. A longtime resident of the Dallas/Fort Worth area, Billy served frequently as a minister of the Gospel while serving others through his business as a carpenter. As a son, husband, and father, he is survived by his father Frank Crenshaw, his wife Rosemary Raley, children James Raley, Ricky Raley, Andrew Raley, Anna Saens, Anna Patterson, and Rollin Bredenberg, nine grandchildren and one great-grandchild. As a friend, fisherman, and fisher-of-men, he is remembered by countless friends, "the one that got away", and the many who, by God's grace, did not. The memorial service will be held at Irving Bible Church at 3pm on Monday, August 29, 2005. The family will be present during the visitation at Brown Funeral Home in Irving from 5 to 7pm on Saturday, August 27. A memorial fund to support world missions has been set up through Irving Bible Church, 2435 Kinwest Blvd, Irving, TX 75063, and contributions can be marked for the Billy Raley Memorial Fund. Ben F. Ribble Jr., David A.

RIBBLE, DAVID A. RIBBLE, JR., 75, born January 24, 1930 passed into the Lord's presence on Tuesday, May 3, 2005. David was a devoted husband and loving father. Survived by his wife Alice Lafferne; sons David, Paul, John; 6 grandchildren and 1 great grandchild; and 2 sisters Barbara Wilder and Carol Mason. David is predeceased by his father David A. Ribble, Sr, his mother Thelma and only daughter, Janet Waddell. David was a native of Dallas and married to Lafferne for 51 years. Forty-seven years ago, they decided to call Irving home and developed many friendships and memories as they raised their family there. He was a longtime member of Plymouth Park Baptist Church in Irving. After his retirement, David could be found at Las Colinas Country Club, where he "went to work" many days. Graduating from Adamson High School in 1948, Dave joined the Navy and served in Korea on the USS Ozborn. After his discharge, he returned to Dallas and met his wife to be. He determinedly wooed her on his guitar and they were married not long after. He was a talented musician, devoted family man and successful business owner. After retiring, he took great pleasure in mentoring his sons. He exemplified the principle of "being a man of your word." He built several businesses on that principle and was proud of the fact that his sons followed that example. His wisdom and strength will be sorely missed by his family and friends.
