Taylor, William David

TAYLOR, WILLIAM DAVID Passed away May 11, 2005 at the age of 60. He was born in Amarillo, Texas on January 4, 1945. He moved to Dallas in 1950, when his father opened the first of five Southern Maid Donut Shops in the Dallas Metroplex, where he worked with his parents and brother for many years. He graduated from Mesquite High School. He was married in 1964 to a petite young lady of Mesquite, Texas. He was a veteran of the Vietnam War from 1966- 1968; he served as a private first class in the U. S. Army, and was stationed in Thailand; though this was a tough fight abroad, it was only a prelude to the impending fight of his life at home. Upon his honorable discharge, he returned home to his wife and all of the fun to be had, he obtained employment with Checksaver's, Inc., where he was employed for 36 years, and in 1978 he had a son. In August 1986, Bill was diagnosed with Non-Hodgkin's Lymphoma, and he fought for himself and for his family since that very time. He was offered the chance of a lifetime, when he became a candidate for a stem-cell transplant, and, he embraced it without flinching, like always. He fought his battle with cancer until, his last breath in the arms of his family and many friends, and with that last breath he actually won the battle of a lifetime. Bill was preceded in death by his father, Alonzo Benjamin (A. B.) Taylor, his mother, Wilma Maxine Taylor, and his brother, Richard Duane Taylor. He is survived by his wife of 40 years, Dorothy (Dottie); his son and only child, Andrew David Taylor; and his brother, James Robert (J. R.) Taylor and his wife Ann of Blossom, Texas, and their daughter, Shawn Taylor of Hollywood, California. He is also survived by his mother-in-law Alma Louise Lewallen; his aunts, Eula Morgan and Emma Griffith; his brothers and sisters-in-law, Red & Carolyn Kilstrom of Irving, Jimmie & Ann Lewallen of Payne Springs, and Linda & Harold Wright of Canton; great friends of more than 45 years, Jerry & Brenda, Pemberton, and their children, Scott & wife Cathy and, children, and Darla and husband, Billy; and all, of his numerous nieces and, nephews, Eddie, Terry, Gary, Pam, Debborah, Randy, Karen and husband, James, Kenneth, and wife Debi, Kevin, and wife, Robin, Kelly, and husband, Robert, and all of his great-nieces and great-nephews, among them, Penny, and husband, Curtis, B. J., Kasie, Jason, Kristie, and husband, Matt, Kailey, Dustin, Erin, and Courtney. He is also survived by cousins and many friends and acquaintances from all of his path  through life. The Funeral service celebrating Bill's life will be held 2:00 p.m. at Anderson Clayton Funeral Home on Saturday. Rev. Charles R. Diffie, Rev. Jerry D. Diffie, and Rev. Keith Treadway officiating. Internment will be held at the Dallas Fort Worth National Cemetery at 12:00 p.m. on Monday, May 16, 2005. The family will receive friends Friday evening from , 6-8 at Anderson-Clayton.
