WHEELEY, GARRITT "COOTER" REED passed away peacefully at his home in Corinth, Texas, January 6, 2005, just 11 days shy of his 3rd birthday. Garrett was born on January 17, 2002 in Las Colinas, Texas. Garrett touched countless people in his daily life merely with his precious smile. Garrett was so full of life, love and happiness, and was the most gracious gentleman in the world. Even at such a tender age, Garrett was already an avid horseman. He loved riding his Shetland pony "little bit", alongside his big sister Kendall on "Wildfire". He was a good ol' cowboy at heart and was already a member of the 4-H club. And when he was out of his boots he was always ready to ride on daddy's Harley or playing with his hot wheels. Garrett was always the life of the party on the boat. Garrett was never afraid to direct the band at the football games. Garrett is preceded in death by his uncle John-Dodd Wheeler. Survivors include his parents Lori Leigh and James Michael Wheeler and sister Kendall Lauren Wheeler. Grandparents Jean "GiGi" Wilson, Katherine "Queen" Wheeler, Ken and Debbie Reed. Great Grandparents include Billy Jean and Garland Payne Johnson. Garrett is also survived by numerous aunts, uncles, cousins, and friends. We who love him so deeply will miss him greatly and as we move forward Garrett will be there to welcome us home when our journey in this life ends and Gods promise for eternity begins. Funeral service will be held 11:00 a.m., Monday, January 10, 2005, at Mulkey-Mason Funeral Home in Lewisville. Interment will follow in Roselawn Memorial Park in Denton, Texas. Pallbearers will include Bob Wayne Johnson, Gary Johnson, Teddy Johnson and Randall Smith. The family will receive friends from 3:00 to 5:00 p.m. Sunday at the funeral home. “PATT” FLORA MACKAY TURNER
(WIDENER)

¢Patt” Flora Mackay Turner (Widener), born May 29, 1900; died September 2, 2005 at the age of 105 years.

Patt was the daughter of Newspaperman Harry C. Turner and Leta Margaret Barker of Mexico, Missouri.

Patt married James Forrest Widener, who died in 1942. She is survived by their three children: James Forrest Widener, Jr. of Irving; Gloria Pace Cardwell of Cedar Hill and Richard Andrew Widener of Irving. Six grandchildren: Lana Widener, Dean Cardwell, James Widener III, Stephanie Hendrie, Drew Cardwell and John Mackay Widener. Eight Great Grandchildren and One Great Great Grandchild.

Patt was a graduate of SMU Law School. She passed the Bar in 1941 and was sworn in by Judge Sarah T. Hughes. She was a partner in the Law Firm of Hancy, Aiken and Widener.

A life of 105 years is one of living history. Patt often recalled the days of her youth, when her father took her with him on interviews. She met such great people as Author, Mark Twain; Evangelist, Billie Sunday; and hatchet welding Prohibitionist Carry A. Nation. Patt’s Grandfather, John M. Barker, was Prosecuting Attorney for Montgomery City, Missouri. She was a descendant of Captain-Commandant, James MacKay whose explorations and map of the Missouri River were invaluable to the Lewis and Clark Expedition 200 years ago.

Her life’s last chapter was the ending of a Life well lived.

Memorial Services were overseen by Ben F. Brown in Irving, Texas. Interment was in Mexico, Missouri.

Dec 8, 2005
Mark Alan Wilson was living in Tyler, Texas and was killed during a shooting outside the Smith County in Tyler, Texas. He entered an ongoing gun battle between David Hernandez Arroyo Sr., who had attempted earlier to kill his wife and son, and law enforcement officers. Wilson was killed at close quarters by Arroyo, who was wearing body armour, after shooting and hitting Arroyo several times. Wilson had no affiliations, professional or otherwise, with law enforcement, and acted solely as a private citizen during the shootout. Arroyo was later killed by gunfire from police officers.

In recognition of his heroism, the Texas State Rifle Association published an account of his actions. The Texas House unanimously adopted a resolution (HR. 740) on March 31, 2005 to honor Mark.
