

J. LESVIA "LES" FALCON

Les was born March 19, 1932 in Hebronville, Texas and passed away July 12, 2006 in Irving.

She was a resident of Irving for the last 38 years. She is preceded in death by her parents Laurencio and Manuela Falcon, maternal grandparents Eliseo and Jovita Escobedo, paternal grandparents Antonio and Dominga Falcon and her beloved "Buttons." She is survived by cousins, aunts, uncles, other relatives and many dear friends.

Les graduated from the University of Texas at Austin in 1953. She began her career as a Pharmacist in Laredo and Lunz Pharmacy in Hebronville. Les moved to the Dallas area 46 years ago and worked as a Pharmacist at St. Paul's Hospital and Irving Community Hospital. She was Director of Pharmacy at Scottish Rite Hospital and retired in 1992. Les was a loyal "Hook 'Em Horns" Texas Longhorn fan. She loved tennis and was a very avid, competitive player as verified by her many trophies.

Les was a very special person and will be remembered for her strength and caring nature. She will be truly missed by those who were fortunate enough to have known her.

Services were held July 15 in her hometown of Hebronville. She was laid to rest there beside her parents.

In lieu of flowers, memorial donations may be made to the DFW Humane Society of Irving, 1611 W. Irving Blvd, Irving or a charity of your choice. Arrangements were made by Brown's Memorial Funeral Home.

2006JOHNNY B. FENLEY
1940 - 2006

Johnny B. Fenley went to his Lord on Saturday March 11, 2006, at his home in Irving. He was born May 4, 1940 in Shamrock, Texas to J.B. and Erma Fenley. As a boy, he lived on a farm and attended schools in Lela and Shamrock, where he showed his prowess in education and athletics. As a member of the Class '62 of Texas A&M College (now University), Johnny was proud to be a member of the Sul Ross Volunteers and to serve on the Student Senate, the Sciences Council, the Accounting Society, and the Aggieland Staff. Academically he was recognized as a Distinguished Student and graduated as a Distinguished Military Graduate. Following completion of his military obligation, Johnny obtained his M.B.A. from the University of Texas in Austin in 1967. He earned his C.P.A. certification and worked first for Price Waterhouse & Co. before leaving public accounting. In 1976 he purchased Superior Lawn Sprinkler Co. and spent the next 25 years actively involved in the Dallas Irrigation Association and Texas Turf Irrigation Association until retiring in 2001. He loved to fish and play golf in his youth, and found great pleasure in being a class agent for the Class '62 for several years preceding his death. That job brought him in contact with many friends who have so generously expressed their love of him. Johnny is survived by his wife of 43 years, Beverly; his daughters and sons- in- law Stephanie and Gustavo Garcia and Rhonda Gail and John Huston; his son and daughter-in- law John Brian and Robin Fenley. His children and grandchildren Jarrett Brison Fenley and Gabriela Grace Garcia were the greatest delights of his life. He is also survived by his brother and sister-in-law Tom and Jo Fenley and their children Andy and Andrea of Erick, Oklahoma, many cousins, and friends around the world through Texas A&M and the internet. Johnny became a Christian late in his life, and yet made many fast friends at Plymouth Park Baptist Church in Irving, where he was baptized. He especially loved the ministry of Ken Branham, his pastor and friend. Johnny would want to be remembered as a child of God, and would encourage everyone to have faith in the Lord. Memorial services will be held at 10 a.m. March 15, 2006 at Plymouth Park Baptist Church, 1714 N. Story Road in Irving, with interment in the D/FW National Cemetery in Dallas to follow. Visitation will be Tuesday March 14 at Donnelly's Funeral Home in Irving from 6-8 p.m. The family requests that gifts be given to Plymouth Park Baptist Church mission funds, the Association of Former Students at Texas A&M University in College Station, Texas, Baylor Medical Center Irving, or the American Cancer Society.

Ferrell, Rosella Dawn

FERRELL, ROSELLA DAWN, Beloved wife of Rev. Bill H. Ferrell, founding pastor of Calvary Temple of Irving, Texas, and former senior pastor of Calvary Chapel of Richardson, Texas, passed peacefully from this world on February 10, 2006. Born June 23, 1930, in Clinton, Indiana, she moved to Dallas after marrying Rev. Ferrell in 1950. Mrs. Ferrell lived a life dedicated to God, her family, her church, and her community. Whether teaching Sunday School for more than 35 years, working as church secretary, or volunteer work with a bus ministry that picked up neighborhood children for church, she was always ready, willing and eager to help. During her years as a pastor's wife, she accumulated many honors, plaques, and awards that serve as a testament to her love of people and their love of her. She remained a faithful and adoring wife for 53 years and taught all around her the meaning of selfless love and tireless dedication. She was an ideal mother, able to correct any problem, and always knew the right words to say. All who knew her, loved her. She worked diligently to make the world a better place, and the stars will shine less brightly in her absence. Preceded in death by Rev. Ferrell, as well as her loving mother, Bertha Pastore, of Clinton, Indiana, Mrs. Ferrell is survived by her children: daughter and son-in-law, Priscilla and John Hatcher, and son, Billy S. Ferrell; grandchildren: Jennifer and Adam Weis, and Jonathan Hatcher; great-grandchildren: Adam and Jeremy Weis; and her big brother whom she idolized since childhood, the Rev. John (Jack) Pastore, as well as other family, friends and former parishioners. Just as in the passing of Rev. Ferrell, the family would like to thank so many dear friends for their continued prayers and support. While their pain is immeasurable, they are comforted to think of Rose and Bill together again, and waiting, patiently, for the rest of us to join their heavenly reunion. Funeral services will be held at 10:00 am, Wednesday, February 15, at Calvary Church, 4401 N. Hwy. 161 (George Bush) in Irving, Texas (972-261-1919). The Rev. Tom McMahan, Rev. J. Don George, and Rev. Jimmie Phillips will officiate. A graveside service at Restland Cemetery will immediately follow the funeral service. Relatives and friends are welcome at the Restland Funeral Home (972-238-7111), 9220 Restland Road, Dallas, TX on Tuesday, February 14, from 6:00 pm to 8:00 pm. Restland 972-238-7111 restlandfuneralhome.com
