Cathy Kemmerly

A TRIBUTE TO A TRUE FRIEND

The Bible says, to have friends we must be friendly And Friendship is a part of Cathy Kemmerly

A lady with a variety of talents and skills Making her a lady above the "run of the mill"

An alumna of Lubbock Christian School And a degree from Harding's nursing pool
Then using her learning to benefit all ages Without regard for "top wages"

A devoted daughter to a special mother Giving time and money to many others
A registered nurse, serving is her life's goal She wins the praise of others she knows

A cheerful friend who enjoys a good laugh Winning a hearty invitation: "Do come

A devoted Servant in the Lord's Church Using her talents and joys in Youth Work

An efficient Counselor at Camp Goddard Serving as Life Guard for fun in the water
Using her own learning as a Girl Scout That others may learn what life is about

Her talent is seen in the world of Business And in this too she has been a success
Skilled in the "Age of the Computer" Showing confidence about life in the future

So we pay tribute and honor to a special woman Who is worthy of a "Special Bonus"
Of her we know the Lord is fully aware And she can be assured of His special care

King, Linda KondraskeView/Sign Guest Book

KING, LINDA KONDRASKE , Died on April 14, 2006 in Sacramento, California after a short illness. A native of California, Linda moved to Texas in the early 1970's and started a career as a professional health sciences librarian. While Linda always maintained that her greatest accomplishment was her sons Chris and Drew, her friends and colleagues recognized her as a master searcher of the biomedical literature. During her time in both clinical and academic medical libraries, she willingly used her expert knowledge to help everyone who came into her libraries, from Nobel Prize winners to medical students to members of the public. Linda's career included service in the libraries at the University of Texas Southwestern Medical Center, the University of Texas at Arlington, Texas Christian University, Cook's Children's Medical Center and St. Paul's Medical Center. Linda started the Children's Library at Texas Scottish Rite Hospital for Children before taking a reference librarian position in the Gibson D. Lewis Health Sciences Library at the University of North Texas Health Sciences Health Science Center at Fort Worth. She served the teaching, research, and patient care needs of Lewis Library patrons for over eight years before returning to California in September of 2005 to assume a similar job in the medical library at the University of California at Davis. She leaves behind many people who love and miss her very much every day. Friends are invited to celebrate Linda's life on Saturday, May 13, 2006 from 12:00 p.m. - 4:00 p.m. at the University of North Texas Health Sciences Center Atrium at 3500 Camp Bowie Blvd., Fort Worth. A memorial service will be held at 1:00 p.m. In lieu of flowers, donations of children's books to libraries of your choice can be made in Linda's honor as well as to any favorite charity. Survivors: sons, Chris and Drew of Fort Worth and sister Louise King, brothers Larry and Leonard and many loved nieces and nephews. Elk Grove Funeral Chapel Elk Grove, CA916-686-1888

Krueger, Dalton EdwardView/Sign Guest Book

KRUEGER, , DALTON EDWARD Of Plano and Dallas, Texas, passed away on Sunday, August 13, 2006, from injuries resulting from a car accident. He was born on August 25, 1998, to Grace Barnard and Duane Krueger in Dallas, Texas. Dalton will forever remain in the hearts of his many friends and family members. His eight years of life were filled with much love. He blessed us all with his quick laughter, generous and compassionate heart and loving nature. We will miss the sparkle in his eyes, the broad grins on his face, and the loving words from his heart. Dalton's final act of generosity was the donation of his organs, which saved the lives of 5 people and helped two disabled people to live better lives. Be forever in peace sweetheart. Dalton is survived by his father, Duane Krueger; his mother, Grace Temple Barnard; sister, Mackenzie Krueger; Daen Wombwell; grandparents, Judith and Temple Barnard and Peggy and Dwight Harkness; great-grandmother, Mary Armstrong; cousins, Christopher Lane; Adam Ambo, Benjamin Ambo, Graecen Cooter, Barret Jones, Bryce Jones, AJ Kingsley, and Ethan Kingsley; aunts and uncles, Kathleen Miller and Matt Foster, Judy and John Lane, Dawn Lee Barnard, Janeen and Kirk Cooter, Devon and Brian Jones, Susan and Stephen Ambo, Christine and John Kingsley, and Michael Ward; and numerous other family members and friends. Funeral services will be held at 2:00 p.m., Friday, August 18, 2006, at Sparkman/ Hillcrest Northwest Hwy. Chapel. Interment will follow at Hillcrest Memorial Park. Dalton loved to give and the family is requesting donations be made to the National Multiple Sclerosis Society, 733 Third Avenue, New York, New York 10017.
