MANN, JANICE DEEN, Of Irving passed away peacefully the morning of July 12, 2006 at the Baylor Medical Center of Irving after a long battle with COPD, congestive heart failure, and rheumatoid arthritis. She was 65. She was born October 3, 1940 in Lake City, Arkansas to parents Melvin Hulet and Hazel Bertha Fortenberry. The family moved to Saginaw, Michigan where she grew up and graduated high school in 1957. Shortly thereafter she married serviceman Kenneth R. Van Conett and they adopted a son, Jeffrey, while stationed in Germany in 1962. After a divorce, she married Allen Dean Mann in 1968 and they settled in Irving where she gave birth to their only child, Belinda, in 1969. At this time she also took her Mother into her home, and Hazel lived there and helped with homemaking until her passing in 1996. After the untimely passing of Allen in 1975, Jan became the sole provider for her Mother and her two children. She was an independent woman who embraced the challenge, remaining a single woman until her passing. She worked many years for Howard U. Freeman, Inc. in Irving before retiring from DalTex Waste Materials in Dallas in 1996 when her disabilities became insurmountable. She is predeceased by her parents, her older brother Ferdinand, and her second husband Allen. Left to remember her are son Jeffrey King VanConett of Gretna, Louisiana and Jeffrey's son Matthew; daughter Belinda Kay and her husband Reginald Rueffer of Arlington, Texas; older brother James Fortenberry and his wife Jo Ann of Montrose, Michigan; and numerous cousins, nieces and nephews. Her family is grateful for the kind care and attention provided her by Jillian and John Ross and staff of VIP Living Centers (Irving) in the last year of her life. In honor of Jan's personal wishes, there will be no memorial service.
