GERALDINE PATRICIA (MONCKTON) SITTON

Geraldine Monckton Sitton passed from this life on September 16, 2006, after a lengthy illness. She was born in New York on March 4, 1919 to Henry Elwood and Mary Madeline Roe Monckton. Known as Granny or Gerry to all that knew and loved her, she will be greatly missed by friends and family.

She was preceded in death by her husband and companion, William Thomas Sitton in April, 1993. Survivors include sister, Ardinell Hill, of Irving, and daughters Rita Arnold of Fort Worth and Martha Stanphill and husband Ray of Pilot Point, TX. She had four beloved grandchildren Thomas Arnold and wife, Cindy, of Irving, Lynn Stanphill and wife, Marygene of San Antonio; Mary Cooper and husband, Tim of Irving, and Billy Stanphill of Pilot Point. She was the proud great-grandmother to Amy Arnold of Denton, Marissa and Megan Cooper of Irving and Zebulon and Yleanna Stanphill of San Antonio.

Gerry's hobbies included cooking, sewing, gardening and reading. In her younger years, she found great pleasure in taking trips to the gulf coast to fish with friends. In recent years, she delighted in cooking for and entertaining friends at her home. Even in declining health at the age of eighty-six, she still took the time to prepare delicious candies and desserts during the holiday season. After raising her own two daughters, she and husband, Tommy, raised two grandchildren. She doted on all children and seemed happiest when holding, rocking and singing to babies. A life-long student of God's Word, she loved to discuss bible stories and events with others and enjoyed participating in church activities. She was a member of the Beltline Road Church of Christ.

The family would like to thank VITAS Hospice group who helped care for her in her final days. Special thanks go to Unda Biering and Tom and Alex Hogue for the very special care, love and attention they gave to Granny in her final days.
