 View/Sign Guest Book

CHARLES LANE TAYLOR, age 66, passed away Friday, November 24, 2006. Charles was born on December 28, 1939 in Santo, Texas. He served in both the Army and Navy before attending North Texas State University where he received both a Bachelor of Business Administration and a Master of Business Administration. Charles was raised in Mineral Wells and he lived most of his adult life in Irving where he established a very successful business as the Texas distributor for a major orthopedic equipment company. After retiring from medical sales, he worked several years in real estate. Charles had a wonderfully rich, full life and he felt that he was truly blessed for having family and friends that loved him dearly; many were at his side the moment God chose to bring him home. He was a good Christian man who loved his God, his family and his friends. To his friends and family his stories were legendary. He often recounted his stories to serve as lessons for life and they were always told with great humor. He had a passion for reading, especially about historical events, and a love for hunting, guns, cars, and motorcycles. From early childhood he was always happiest in the great outdoors. He is survived by his wife Elena, son Eric and daughter Paige. Service 11:00 a.m., Tuesday, November 28, 2006 at South MacArthur Church of Christ. Interment at Bosley Cemetery, Palo Pinto County, Texas. Remembrances can be sent to the American Cancer Society.
