Galland, John H.

GALLAND, JOHN H. 56, died May 18, 2007 in an automobile accident. He is survived by his wife, Maggie Klein Galland, and their son, Luke, of Durango, CO; father and step mother, Richard I. and Arlette D. Galland of Dallas, TX; brother Dick Galland Jr (Annie Callaway), of Santa Cruz, CA; sister, Holley Galland Haymaker (Dick Haymaker) of Baton Rouge, LA; step sister, Carin Knoop of Cambridge, MA; and numerous cousins, nieces and nephews from both the Galland and Klein families. John was preceded in death by his mother, Alice Halstead Galland. John was an excellent athlete, a member of the Colorado All State high school soccer team and an active mountaineer. In 1971 he was injured in a skiing accident, losing the use of his legs. This did not deter him from the active life he loved. John devoted much of his life to sharing his passion for nature with others as a gifted K-12 classroom teacher and in such organizations as POINT (Paraplegics on independent nature trips) in Texas, numerous Outward Bound Schools, the Vinland Center in Minneapolis, MN, Adventure Etc. in San Francisco, CA, Telluride Adaptive Sports Program, and programs mentioned below. John represented the United States as the first US Nordic skier in the 1988 Paralympics in Innsbruck, Austria. He loved to sail, play tennis and ski. He was an avid fly fisherman and loved anything to do with water and boats. John was educated at St. Mark's School in Dallas; Colorado Rocky Mountain School in Carbondale, CO; and North Texas State University. He graduated from Augsburg College in Minneapolis, MN. John will be remembered for his outgoing, sunny disposition, his curiosity about the natural world, his sense of humor, and his indomitable spirit of adventure. A celebration of John's life will begin at their home in Durango, CO, at 10 AM on Friday, May 25th. In lieu of flowers, gifts of remembrance may be donated to Adaptive Sports Association Durango, CO, info@asadurango.com; SPLORE, Salt Lake City, UT, info@splore.org; Wilderness Inquiry, Minneapolis, MN, info@wildernessinquiry.com; Caddo Lake Institute, Austin, TX, info@caddolake.us,

Gayton, Samuel Joshua

 View/Sign Guest Book

GAYTON, SAMUEL JOSHUA, Born August 13, 1982 was called home to be with his beloved Lord on August 12, 2007. Samuel believed the Lord would heal him from stomach cancer and in the end he was healed. He joins his recently departed Mother in heaven where they are both free of pain and suffering. He was born in Edmonton, Alberta, Canada and moved to Dallas with his family when he was young. Samuel became a Marine on his 22nd birthday. He joined the Marines because he understood that freedom does not come free and it was his duty to serve his country. He became an armorer and achieved the rank of Lance Corporal during this time. Samuel was a graduate of Christ for the Nations Bible College. He was pursuing his bachelor's degree in business from Dallas Baptist University. Samuel always brought out the best in others and had a generous heart and spirit. He worked at South Side on Lamar for several years and was always going out of his way to help the residents. Samuel was a very devout Christian and his beliefs touched many and as a result the seeds he planted continue to multiply and grow. Samuel is survived by his very proud father and sister, Brian and Jodie Gayton. His mother Joanne Gayton went to be with the Lord in May. His fiancée and the love of his life Leah Williams was by his side the entire time while he battled cancer. Samuel is also survived by his grandmother Ramona Ellert Siever and Irene Gayton and numerous aunts, uncles and cousins. Samuel is also survived by his adoring canine Jasmine. Samuel was a devoted friend and there are too many to name, but Samuel loved you all and thank you to everyone who helped to boost his spirits and pray for him during the last few months. Siempre Fidelis - Always Faithful In lieu of flowers, we ask that donations be sent to Christ for the Nations, Att: New Missions Building PO BOX 769000 Dallas, TX 75376-9000. Burial with military honors will be held Friday August 17, 2007. Visitation will begin at 10 A.M. and the procession will leave for the cemetery at 10:30 A.M. sharp. We will be celebrating Samuel's life at Christ for the Nations Wayne Meyers Auditorium Saturday August, 18, 2007 at 2 PM. Please join us in the celebration of his remarkable life.
