Phyllis Jean Jessup, of Irving, passed away Thursday, August 16, 2007. She was born November 19, 1921, the youngest of five girls, to Jessie Mulford Rosenberry and Lewis James Rosenberry on a farm in Cooperstown, N.Y. She graduated from high school in Corning, N.Y. and was employed by the American LaFrance Foamite Corporation of Elmira, N.Y. as a secretary. She married Keith Jessup and they moved to Dallas where she worked for Textile, Inc. After the birth of their two daughters, she was involved with PTA, Girl Scouts, teaching Sunday school, and was active in the Braniff Auxiliary. She was later employed at the Child Care Center of the First United Methodist Church as a pre-school and kindergarten teacher. Preceded in death by her husband Keith, she leaves behind two beloved daughters and their families; Linda Stanberry and husband Dean of Little Rock, Arkansas, and Carole Lanier and husband Larry of Krum; grandchildren Brad Jones of Little Rock, Amy Jones of Fayetteville, Arkansas, Jason Mershon of Irving, Ashley Mershon of Austin, and Collin Poston of Krum; and nephew Robert Deneen. Funeral services were held at 11:00 AM Monday, August 20, 2007 at First United Methodist Church in Irving. Interment followed at Oak Grove Memorial Gardens. Arrangements were made by Brown's Memorial Funeral Home. Phyllis will be remembered for her generosity and selflessness, her positive spirit, her wonderful sense of humor, her nurturing and encouragement, and most of all, her love for her family. If it were possible to order up the perfect mother and grandmother, she would be just like Phyllis. She was always there to help, encourage, and to make it all better, no matter what the problem. She carried on this nurturing and inspiring spirit as she touched the lives of hundreds of children through her work in Sunday school, kindergarten, and Girl Scouts. In a time where positive role models are sorely needed, we could do no better than to point to that sweet and lovely spirit, Phyllis Jessup.

Johnson, Matthew David

JOHNSON,, MATTHEW DAVID Born December 17, 1984 in Waco, Texas, died May 10, 2007 in Boulder, Colorado. He is survived by his father and step-mother, Jim and Brenda Johnson of Fairview, Texas, his mother, Candy Johnson of Waco, Texas, his step-brothers Jimmy and Drew, and numerous other friends and family. Matt was gentle yet brave...accomplished well beyond his years. His natural smile, quick wit, sometimes biting humor put people at ease, whether he was speaking English or Chinese. His seriousness and purpose made him seem wise, mature and trustworthy, yet his endearing shyness left him vulnerable. He lived life to the fullest traveling the world pursuing his passions. He was a quiet leader who graduated from the Greenhill School, Dallas. He was a lacrosse team captain, and an avid outdoorsman enjoying scuba diving, hunting, skiing, and exploration. Matt was a scholar studying finance, Chinese and Eastern culture. He was a senior at the University of Colorado at Boulder. Most importantly, Matt accepted Jesus Christ and is now at home with the Lord. Matt will be greatly missed. His life will be remembered and celebrated at a memorial service, officiated by Dr. Bill Counts, at Fellowship Bible Church Dallas, 9330 North Central Expressway, on Wednesday, May 16, 2007 at 3 o'clock in the afternoon.
