Gus Kauk at 1:54 pm

Funeral services for Gus Edward Kauk, age 91 of Butler, will be held at 10 a.m. Friday at the First Baptist Church in Butler with Rev. Roy Dobbs officiating.

Kauk died Wednesday, Jan. 17, 2007, at Integris Clinton Regional Hospital. He was born on May 1, 1915 in Custer County, the son of Ed and Margaret (Horst) Kauk.

He was reared north of Butler and attended school at Osceola.

In his younger years he enjoyed playing baseball in the Osceola community.

On Feb. 9, 1939 he married Ovada Haney in Custer County.

He spent his entire life in the farming community north of Butler raising cattle, hogs and chickens. He was a member of the Baptist Church in Butler and had been in failing health the past few months.

Preceding him in death, along with his parents, were five sisters, Elsie Meek, Lydia Basler, Hilda Haney, Sarah Shelton, Ruth Addington; and three brothers, infant Henry, Jimmy Kauk and Eddie Kauk.

Burial will conclude in the Shiloh Cemetery under the direction of the Kiesau-Lee Funeral Home in Clinton.

Survivors include his wife, Ovada, of the home; a daughter, Wanda Nance and her husband, Kenneth, of Clinton; sons, Duane and his wife, Debbie, Darrel and his wife, Lynda, all of Clinton; 11 grandchildren; and 15 great grandchildren.

The family has suggested that memorial contributions in Kauk's honor may be made to either the Butler Fire Department, Butler Ambulance Service or Shiloh Cemetery fund.

James W. Kennedy passed away on December 7, 2007, in Grand Prairie.

JAMES W. "JIMMY" KENNEDY

James W. Kennedy was born on Sep. 29, 1943, in Uniontown, PA. He married Billie Jean Owens of Grand Prairie on Feb. 4, 1972. Jimmy owned Roadside Grocery on Beltline Road in Irving from 1972-1992. In those years at Roadside, Jimmy became more than the owner of Roadside. He was a friend and a confidant, always willing to help anyone. If you needed a dime, he gave you a dollar. He helped his community, going out of his way to do all he could. He was always there when someone needed a hand. He was always honest, trustworthy, and true at heart. He never met a stranger. He was always kidding and joking, bringing laughter and smiles. He will never be forgotten. He was also in the military, serving his country as a member of the Air Force. Jimmy was truly an asset to this world and is already deeply missed.

Jimmy had been very ill for many years, battling several different health problems. He was very devoted to his wife, who has been right by his side through it all. He was a devoted, loving, caring, and gentle husband, father, grandfather, son, brother, uncle, brother-in-law, and much more.

Jimmy was preceded in death by his father John (Jack) Kennedy of Grand Prairie. He is survived by his mother, Mildred Kennedy; his son, James Kennedy Jr. and wife Stephanie; daughter, Laurie Stausing; brother, Jackie Kennedy; sisters, Karen Chitty, and Debra Brisco and husband Jim; 5 grandchildren; and many more relatives.

Funeral Services were held at Donnelly's Colonial Funeral Home on Dec. 11. Viewing and visitation was also at the funeral home on Dec. 9 and also on Dec. 10. Friends were received by the family on Monday.
