Brent Diercks

DIERCKS, BRENT was born December 3, 1963, and arrived home May 3, 2008. Brent was born in Sellig, OK and grew up in Plano. As a child he camped and fished on the Brazos River. He loved the outdoors almost as much as he loved his family. Although his life was short, he lived it to the fullest. He spent 6 years in Red Oak where he owned his own Refinishing Company. During that time he enjoyed racing cars and riding horses. He fulfilled his life-long dream when he and his mother bought a Marina and Lodge. He spent his last years in the beauty and peace of the Brazos River. Brent is the beloved son of Jimmy Diercks and Patricia DeFord. He is survived by his parents, his brother Douglas DeFord; his sister Mikko Jene; brother-in-law Justin Smith and his three beautiful nieces Cheyenne, Mattie and Abigail, who he adored more than anything. He has many aunts, uncles and cousins and will be missed by all, until we are are together again. We love you Brent. Visitation will be from 6:30 until 8:30 PM Monday May 5 at the Funeral Home. Funeral Services will be 2.00 PM Tuesday May 6, 2008 at the Funeral Home; Interment will follow at Little Bethel Memorial Park. DUFFER, VERA GASSAWAY BELOVED MOTHER, Vera Gassaway Duffer, of Irving, Texas, born December 29, 1925, age 82, died on Friday March 7, 2008 in Arlington, Texas. Vera was a teacher, loved to sew and travel, and so loved her dogs, but above all else, she was a devoted mother. Vera’s love of conversation was insatiable; after all, she came from a time when television didn’t exist. Vera was a volunteer at Irving Bible Church, Newborns in Need, and ESL. Our mother was survived by her three children, Ann, Dave, and Claude, son-in-law Mark, sister-in-law Sandy, her grandchildren Ariel, Nathan, and Jason, Britteny, Paul, Hollie and Craig, and their families, her aunts and uncles, nieces and nephews, and other family and friends. Vera will be missed more than words can express, but her life we shall celebrate. A memorial service will be held at Irving Bible Church in Irving, Texas on Friday, March 14, 2008 at 10 a.m. A reception will follow. Alternative Funeral Services 1222 S. Dunaway, Alan Hearts are saddened at the loss of Alan Dunaway, 57, who had battled cancer and diabetes since 1995. He died Monday, Aug. 4, 2008. Memorial service: 10 a.m. Friday at First Baptist Church, 403 S. Main, Irving. Alan chose cremation for his body and heaven for his soul.

Memorials: In lieu of flowers, the family requests donations to Vitas Hospice Foundation, 2501 Parkview Drive, Suite 600, Fort Worth, Texas 76102, or a charity of choice.

Dunaway was the first child of Ray and Euclid Dunaway, who preceded him in death. He was raised in Irving and was active and excelled in sports, from YMCA PeeWee through his basketball guard position at TCU and on to adult league softball. He worked in the wholesale pharmaceutical industry until 2000, a career he loved because of his co-workers and the many friends he made at the pharmacies he serviced throughout the Metroplex and surrounding areas, living in Grand Prairie during this time. Besides the love for his family and friends, Alan enjoyed sports, music, traveling, fishing and a friendly game of poker or an evening at the blackjack table. He cherished his childhood friends and coaches and looked forward to their annual "guys weekend getaway." He enjoyed telling jokes or stories that would cause a smile and laughter to anyone listening. Alan can best be described in two words: faithful and dependable. If he loved you, it was deeply and if you were his friend it was for life.

Survivors: His wife, Mary; daughters Allison Dunaway-Osborn and Lolly Lroy; Mary's son Kirk Berry & wife Tiffany; his sisters & brother in laws Kay & Bill Smith, Gayla & Kevin Howell, grandchildren, aunt, uncle, special nieces, nephews, other relatives, numerous friends and his most beloved and loyal companion Sunshine.

Durham, Jessica Haley

Durham, Jessica Haley 15, passed away at home suddenly on Christmas morning. Born November 16, 1993 in Dallas, Texas, Jessica was a Freshman at Berkner High School in Richardson, Texas, where she lived with her mother and sister. Jessica lived her life to the fullest. Everyone will miss Jessica’s humor, her smile and especially her laugh. Jessica loved her dog Crystal, her artwork, Japanese food, cooking, designing clothes, shopping, and being with her friends. Jessica had great artistic talent and had plans to present her new artwork on-line. The family will continue this special project in her memory. Jessica was brave beyond her years, facing physical challenges every day of her life with strength and courage. She suffered serious injuries and the loss of her father, Mark Allen Durham, in a car accident two years ago. She overcame far more than her fair share of challenges in her fifteen years, and she did it with grace and love. Jessica made all of us a better person just by knowing her. She was a heroine to us all. Jessica is preceded in death by her father, Mark, and grandparents, Jim and Billie Durham and grandfather Jimmie Maris. She is survived by her mother, Sheri Maris Durham, and her sister Marisa; grandparents, Ruth Maris and husband Jim Swick; aunts and uncles Denise Durham Jenkins and husband Robert, Alicia Durham Buescher and husband Michael, Diane Maris Carroll, Ginger Maris Hamilton and husband Eldon, and John Durham and wife D’Anna; cousins, Paige Martin, Nathan Carroll, Zachary Byrd, Matthew Behrens, Graham, Jimmy and Sarah Jenkins; her best friends Suzanne Fear and Brandon Anciso; and numerous other family members and friends. Family will receive friends from 6:00–8:00 p.m. on Monday, December 29, 2008 at First United Methodist Church 503 N. Central Expressway Richardson, TX 75080. Service will be held at 2:00 p.m. on Tuesday, December 30, 2008 at First United Methodist Church Richardson.
