Quentin Lee Luther, 88, of Greensburg passed away on February 13th, 2008 in Irving, Texas at Northgate Plaza Nursing Home following a four year battle with Alzheimer's. He passed away peacefully in his sleep in the company of his daughter Michael Ann (Luther) Guthrie and friends. He was born on June 6th, 1919 in Adams, Indiana, the son of Loyd Luther and Lulu (Swango) Luther who owned and operated a small gas station and grocery store in Adams, Indiana for many years. Quentin left Adams, Indiana in 1942 after joining the Army and returned from Europe a much decorated WWII veteran. His unit was responsible for liberating the infamous concentration camp at Dachau. He received an honorable discharge in 1946. He met and married Anne Geraldine Hancock of San Antonio in Galveston Texas on May 31, 1946, who preceded him in death on February 12, 2000. For much of their 54 years of marriage, they lived in St. Louis, Missouri but after his retirement they resided in Greensburg for the final 24 years enjoying the company of friends and relatives. He studied the field of engineering in Texas and was a member of the ISA for 56 years and became one of the first chemical engineers to work within the nuclear power industry, pioneering the first heavy water power plants for DuPont Corporation in Savannah River. Quentin learned to play drums and the electric piano at the age of 68 and played with many locally renowned musicians including Ruth Eaton, Mike Gardner, Al Bornemeyer, Troy Hooten, Wayne and Monte Utter, Ed Bedel and Dorothy Brady. With them he entertained many Indiana citizens at local nursing homes, fairs and other events around the county until 2004. Quentin was known for his help with his neighbors, his many mopeds that he fixed and sold and his genuine love of music and the gentle farmlands of Indiana that he was born and raised in. He had a sweet and gentle spirit, a lively sense of humor and was a patriot to his country and a loving father and husband to his family. He was a member of the First Baptist Church of Greensburg and is survived by his only daughter, Michael Ann Guthrie who resides in Dallas, Texas. A military service will be held at the Dallas-Fort Worth National Cemetery on May 22nd, 2008 with a memorial following at the home of his daughter. As a much decorated veteran his name will be added to the World War II Memorial wall at the National Cemetery in honor of his service to his country. He will be missed by family and friends, joining his wife and companions in a better place under the protection of the Lord for Eternity.
Harold David Lynch, age 71, of Fairview, Texas, passed away April 3, 2008, at his home. He was born February 28, 1937, in Washington, DC, the son of Edward and Marie (Murphy) Lynch. He proudly served his country in the United States Army, was a graduate of The Citadel in Charleston, South Carolina, and he also earned his Master's Degree at the University of Kansas, Lawrence, Kansas. He retired with the rank of Colonel. On April 7, 1961, he married Bettye Rice in Denison, Texas. He is survived by his wife of forty-six years, Bettye; children, Karen Hunt of Denison, TX, Jeffrey Mallow of Irving, TX, Susan Cartledge of Martinez, GA, and Patricia Hightower and her husband, Dean of Littleton, CO; grandchildren, Jennifer Walker, Jeremy and Jana Hunt, Tasha Hobbs, and Blake Hightower; seven great-grandchildren; brother, Richard Lynch of Alexander, VA; and sisters, Paula McVeigh and her husband Robert of Panama City Beach, FL and Margaret Hopkins of Palm Beach Gardens, FL. He was preceded in death by his parents; and his grandson, Judd Hunt. Funeral services will be held at 12:00 PM, Monday, April 7, 2008, at Turrentine-Jackson-Morrow Chapel with Rev. Danny Buster officiating. Interment with full military honors will follow at DFW National Cemetery. The family will receive friends during a visitation on Sunday evening at the funeral home from 5:00 to 7:00 PM.
