COL. JOHN W. "JAY" ALLEN
1962 - 2009

COL John "Jay" W. Allen, 46, was born September 8, 1962, in Las Cruces, New Mexico. He graduated from high school in McAlester, Oklahoma in 1980. He was a two year starter on the High School's football team and a member of the First Baptist Church. In 1985, he graduated from Oklahoma State University with a B.S. in Industrial Engineering. In 1986, he married Tammy Michelle Latimer on 29 March 1986 at Fort Hood, Texas. The couple had three children Jessica, born in 1987, John Christian, born in 1989, and Jennifer, born in 1992. COL Allen had, by any standard; a distinguished military career. COL John (Jay) W. Allen entered the military service as an enlisted infantryman in August 1982. He rose to the rank of Sergeant before entering ROTC at Oklahoma State University where he graduated in 1985 and was commissioned a Second Lieutenant in the Regular Army as an Armor Officer. Following the Armor Officer Basic Course at Fort Knox, Kentucky, COL Allen was assigned to the 2nd Armored Division, Fort Hood, Texas where he served as a platoon leader in D CO, 1-66 AR (Cohort). In December of 1986, COL Allen's Cohort Company was rotated to the Federal Republic of Germany where it was re-flagged as A CO, 2-66 AR and was assigned to the 2nd AR (FWD) at Garlistadt, West Germany. COL Allen served as an M1 Tank Platoon Leader, TK CO XO, Canadian Army Trophy Team Support Platoon Leader, HHC XO, and Battalion S-3 (Air) while stationed with 2-66 AR. Upon returning to the United States and completion of the Infantry Officer Advanced Course in Fort Benning, Georgia, COL Allen was assigned to 4-35 AR, 1st BDE, and 5th Infantry Division (MECH) at Fort Polk, Louisiana in December 1990. COL Allen served as a Battalion Motor Officer and M1 Tank Company Commander at Fort Polk until the division was moved as part of BRAC (1991) to Fort Hood Texas and re-flagged as 3-66 AR, 1st BDE 2nd Armored Division. COL Allen served as a M1A1 Tank Company Commander in 4-35 AR and 3-66 AR from 1991 to 1993. In 1993, COL Allen was selected for the Army's Warrior Program and assigned to the National Training Center at Fort Irwin, California where he served as a Battalion Staff Observer Controller, Tank and MECH Infantry Company OC, BDE Battle Staff OC and Chief, Live Fire Operations, Operations Group, NTC. In 1997, COL Allen was assigned to Fort Leavenworth, Kansas as part of the Warrior Program to the Combined Arms Doctrine Directorate, US Army Control Branch and NATO C2 Committee. In 1999, COL Allen graduated from the Command and General Staff College and was assigned to the 1st BDE, 1st Infantry Division (MECH) where he served as the BN S-3 for 2-34 AR and as the 1st BDE 1 ID (M) Operations Officer (S-3) at Fort Riley, Kansas. In May 2001, COL Allen was selected by US Army Armor Branch to serve as the first Stryker Brigade Deputy Brigade Commander/BDE Executive Officer and was sent to Fort Lewis, Washington, where he served building the new Stryker medium BDE (3 BDE, 2ID) and deploying it to Fort Irwin, CA, August-October 2002. Of note, COL Allen conducted the versatility test of the Stryker, by deploying the BDE by sea, air, rail, truck, and road to and from Fort Irwin, CA.

On 15th May 2003, COL Allen took command of the 1 BN, 8th U. S. Cavalry, 1st BDE, 1st CAV DIV at Fort Hood, Texas. COL Allen lead the BN to one rotation at the NTC and then into combat in the Al Dora sector of Baghdad, Iraq (February 2004-March 2005). COL Allen was then assigned to JFCOM J-7/JNTC Solutions Group Suffolk, Virginia from August 2005 to June 2008. In recognition of COL Allen's potential for continued service in positions of greater responsibility, he was sent as a student to the U.S. Naval War College June 2008, in Newport, Rhode Island. COL Allen is a graduate of the Command and General Staff College, Joint Forces Staff College JPME II, holds a Masters Degree in business Administration from the University of Central Michigan, and a Masters Degree in Military Arts and Science in Strategic Studies from the US Army Command and General Staff College.
