Services will be at 2 p.m. Tuesday in Hillside Christian Church Chapel with his brother, Matt Cline, and nephew, Brandon Henderson, officiating. Burial will be in Llano Cemetery by Schooler Funeral Home, 4100 S. Georgia St.

He grew up hunting, fishing, riding bulls, playing most sports, and he could even dance. He went to Nimitz High School in Irving. He quickly outgrew the Dallas/Fort Worth area and moved west to Amarillo so he could have more room to run.
Adrian left behind three boys, Tristan Thomas, Chandler Cane and Wyatt Shaine and a loving family. The list of people that will miss him is too big to name, but it is most of America and parts of Mexico and Canada.
Two things about Adrian that most people will remember: When you were around him, you were probably not sitting still and you were probably laughing.
Adrian loved Jesus and is keeping him and the angel entertained right now. Yes, we miss him, but we know that through faith in Jesus Christ, we will join him again soon, and oh the stories he will have.

Police report: Roommate says man who died took drugs

By SHAUNA LEWIS
shauaetelwes@startelegram.com

A roommate of a 20-year-old man recently discovered in his College Station home has told police the man had taken a methadone pill and marijuana the night before he died, according to police.

Colter Dean Bright, a 2007 graduate of Marcus High School in Flower Mound, was unconscious when police responded to an emergency call just after 7:30 a.m. Thursday at 3300 Von Trapp Lane, police said. College Station Fire Department officials administered CPR, Bright died around noon at the College Station Medical Center, police said.

Lt. Rodney Sigler said there was no clear indication of what caused Bright’s death. An autopsy was ordered, and Sigler said Tuesday police were waiting for toxicology results — which could take about a month — to determine the cause of Bright’s death.

“We have more questions than answers,” Sigler said.

Bright’s roommate, Sean Dickerson Springer, 20, was arrested the same day on a charge of less than two ounces of marijuana, police said.

Springer told police he found Bright in bed with vomit and blood near his head, according to a police report. Springer said Bright told him the night before that he had taken a methadone pill — a synthetic opioid used medically for patients addicted to opioids, according to the report. He also told police he and Bright had purchased one-eighth of an ounce of marijuana and smoked it the previous night, according to the report.

Police found a water pipe that had been used to smoke marijuana, five buds of marijuana and a hookah pipe with marijuana leaves in an ash tray in the home, according to the report.

Springer was released from jail Thursday on $2,000 bail.

The marijuana charge is a misdemeanor punishable by up to 180 days in jail and a fine up to $2,000.

Services for Bright, from Bedford, were held Tuesday in Flower Mound. There will also be a memorial service at the Davidsonville United Methodist Church in Davidsonville, Md., Saturday. The family requests contributions be made to the Colter Bright Memorial Scholarship, c/o Wells Fargo Bank, 2528 Long Prairie Road, Flower Mound, Texas 75022.
