Dorothy Haas
August 8, 1938 - April 26, 2009

Dorothy Haas, born August 8, 1938, left this world on April 26, 2009. She is preceded in death by her husband Ted Haas, her mother and father William and Rebecca Cleveland, her brother Bill Cleveland, and her grandson Bradley Simpson. She is survived by her children, Tom Simpson, Edwin Simpson, and Elizabeth Tackett, by her grandchildren, Joshua Tackett, Brooke Tackett, and Ryan Tackett, by her sisters, Marie Heffernan, Rita Ruhm, Rosemary Smith, and Sonia Parr, and by her brother Fred Cleveland, as well as many other relatives and friends too numerous to mention.

Dorothy had a kind and generous heart. She was always there when others were in need. Dorothy worked as a Registered Nurse for many years, but she was also a mother, a wife, and a small business owner. She loved children and animals, and nothing gave her more pleasure than a good laugh. She will be missed by many.

University Park Police Investigate Murder-Suicide

UNIVERSITY PARK (CBS 11 / TXA 21) — A University Park couple was found dead inside their home, the victims of an apparent murder-suicide. Police identified the victims as Mary Heller Halcomb, 59, and her husband Roscoe Halcomb, 66.

"Our preliminary investigation shows murder-suicide as a result of gunshot wounds," said University Park Officer Lila Snellgrove. Police say officers have not been called to the home for any violent incidents.

It happened last night on the 4000 block of Purdue. Police say a relative who had not heard from the couple in several days went to the home and discovered the bodies inside.

"I knew her securities business had eroded her jewelry business," said Charles Skibell, who owns a jewelry store in the same building. Mary Halcomb operated her jewelry business, Collective Jewels. He never detected any trouble in Mary's life.

"She was the quintessential Dallasite," Skibell said. "Park-Cities type person, who knew fine things, enjoyed the quality of life."

Skibell says he knew little about Mary's husband, who worked in antiques. A neighbor says she heard fighting at the home recently. She heard Roscoe on the phone, sounding stressed about business deals.

Police say it's not clear who shot whom. Meanwhile, friends and acquaintances still can't believe this type of crime happened in their quiet community.

"We'll miss her," Skibell said.

Hinton, Earlene R. Passed away on June 19th, 2009. Earlene was born in Dallas on June 27, 1920, to Earl and Janie Robinson. She was married to Charles Hinton in 1940. Until his death in 2000, they enjoyed a story book marriage. She was preceded in death by her loving brother Earl and sister Doris. Earlene is loved and survived by two sons, Richard and James, their wives Mary Joy and Gayle, grandchildren Elizabeth Hinton, Marisa Hinton and Bryan Hinton and nephews Steve Guest, Marc, James and Tom Robinson.

Earlene was the consummate wife, mother and homemaker. Although she participated in many community affairs and events, she served her family and others with unique and unselfish dedication and love. Her service to her family and her life was grounded by her faith in Jesus Christ as her Lord and Savior. Her family sorely misses her, but rejoices in her presence with Him. Her worldly accomplishments and history are notable. However, her family and her friends knew, love and will remember her as wife, mother and grandmother. She carried out those roles with unique perfection, unconditional love and steadfast dedication to her family. She was a generous friend and source of strength to many. A private graveside service will be held on Monday, June 22 in Dallas, followed by a 3:30 PM memorial service for friends and family at the Wildwood Chapel in Restland Memorial Park. Hood, Wilma

Hood, Wilma Faze Age 92, passed away on February 12, 2009 after suffering a stroke. She was born in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania to Rev. John and Helen Faze. She attended Temple University in Philadelphia and graduated with a Major in Business and a Minor in English and Psychology. She furthered her education by attending courses at George Washington University in Washington, D.C. and at Long Beach State in Long Beach, California. In 1978 she attended Pepperdine University in California and received her Masters degree. Her granddaughter, Heidi Siebens, age 2, attended her graduation.

Wilma Hood's teaching career began in Philadelphia. While there, she met Lt. John Robinson Hood Jr., of Lillington, North Carolina on a moonlight cruise in 1942. He was in the Air Force, and they were married right before World War II. During the War, Wilma saved every penny she earned, and when John came home, she said, "Look, we can buy a house!" He looked at her and said, "Wow, we can buy a plane!" So, they bought a plane and started on their journey through life together. John made the Air Force his career for 25 years. Wilma taught High School for a total of 37 years. While teaching in California, she had some famous students - Tracy Austin, Kurt Russel, and the Beach Boys. Wilma continued teaching until the age of 65. Wilma and John lived in Columbia, South Carolina; Dayton, Ohio; Oak Ridge, Tennessee; Rockville, Maryland; Chicago, Illinois; Bethesda, Maryland; and Palo Verde, California. While living in Maryland, Wilma became a member of the Order of the Eastern Star. After John passed away, Wilma moved to Irving, Texas and finally Dallas, Texas where she spent the remainder of her life. Wilma is survived by her daughter, Dianne McNeil Siebens and her husband Stewart of the Cayman Islands, and their daughter, Heidi Ann Siebens Presser and her husband Lee of Greenwich, Connecticut, and their daughters, Hailey Jade Presser, age 3, and Ashley Brooke Presser, age 3 days. She is also survived by her sister, Elsa McLean and her family of Glenview, Illinois, and her brother Arnold Faze and his family of Coral Gables, Florida. She will be missed and remembered by many. A Memorial Service is set for 2:00P.M., Saturday August 15th at Sparkman/Hillcrest Funeral Home in Dallas, Texas.

Hugman Jr., Robert Harvey Harold
Hugman Jr., Robert Harvey Harold Robert Harvey Harold Hugman, Jr., 84, of Irving, passed away on November 12, 2009, after a lengthy battle with cancer. He was a loving husband, father, and grandfather, and also a great-grandfather. Robert was born on March 8, 1925 to Robert and Martha Hugman. He grew up in San Antonio, where his father was the architect who designed and built the San Antonio Botanical. He served in the Army Air Corps during WWII. On September 1, 1947, he married Rebecca Allen and they moved to Irving. After graduating from The Rhode Island School of Design, he pursued a career in graphic design, and had many artistic achievements. Among his accomplishments are the design of DFV airport signage, creation of the logos for the City of Dallas, and a commission by Abercrombie & Fitch to design and carve sculptures with historical accuracy. He was an avid outdoorsman, loved fishing, and enjoyed woodworking, boat building, and metalworking. He was also an avid cyclist and a collector of antiques. A memorial service will be held at Woodhaven Presbyterian Church, 2650 N. O'Connor Rd. in Irving, with Rev. Julia Rye officiating. The family will receive friends 6-8 PM Tuesday at the funeral home.
