Marlow, Elizabeth

Marlow, Elizabeth Star Wife, mother, and servant of God, went peacefully to be with her Lord and Savior on April, 26 2009 following a brave fight with cancer. Elizabeth was born on December 18, 1932 in Waco TX. She attended Waco High School where at the age of 15 met and began dating her first and only love, Raymond. She attended Baylor University and married Raymond on October 3, 1954. Shortly after their wedding, Elizabeth accompanied Raymond to Germany for two years while he was in the Army which they often referred to as their extended honeymoon. After returning to the States, they lived in Waco for a brief period before settling in Dallas in 1957 to raise a family. Elizabeth was an exceptional wife and mother who exhibited the attributes of a Proverbs 31 woman. She insisted on quality family time and loved being with her children and grandchildren. She loved family vacations in Colorado especially picnicking by a mountain stream. She was blessed with precious friends that would gather frequently on weekends for food, fun and table games. Elizabeth always kept Christ first in her life. She loved sharing her faith in Christ and the path to salvation to others whenever an opportunity presented itself. This was especially evident in 1973 when she and Raymond founded Marlow Industries. Besides working with Raymond and wearing many professional hats, she helped establish a Christian and family work environment that proved to be a successful formula for over 30 years. In her heart, all employees and their families were an extension of her own family. She and Raymond often commented about how many hundreds of pairs of shoes they had made possible. She is preceded in death by her parents, Edward and Eula Laster Starr; her sister Anna Mary Barrett, and Grandson Conner Raymond Marlow. She is survived by Raymond, her loving husband of 54 years, her brother Edward Starr of Waco TX, her son David and daughter-in-law Judy Marlow, her daughter Ann and son-in-law Malcolm Holland, Grandchildren Cole and Christopher Marlow and Charlie and Marlow Holland. A praise and worship service in her memory to honor Christ will be held at Believer’s Chapel, on Wednesday, April, 29 at 2:00. Elizabeth asked that those who attend do so wearing bright colors in celebration of her arrival in heaven. In lieu of flowers, Elizabeth requested donations be sent to Union Gospel Mission at 3211 Irving Blvd. Dallas, TX 75247 or the Believer’s Chapel Tape Ministry, 6420 Churchill Way, Dallas TX 75230. Martin, Philip Martin, Philip Sands 65, passed away Monday, November 9, 2009. For the last 15 years, Phil resided in Valley Ranch, Irving, Texas. He was born on August 3, 1944 in Santa Ana, California to Ruth and Forrest Martin. Raised in Oklahoma City, OK he attended Northwest Classen High School and the University of Oklahoma. In 1966, Phil moved to Dallas, Texas to begin his career of over forty years as a highly respected pool builder. Phil's love of people and life was a source of great joy to everyone who knew him. His clever wit, interesting humor, silly songs and commitment to his friends and family will be remembered forever. A man of complete loyalty and fairness who was unassuming in his love for others, he shared his wisdom on sobriety of 20 years and his program of honesty with his friends and family of Alcoholics Anonymous. His favorite past times were spending time by his pool in the hot sun with a good book and his loving pets by his side, watching political programs, and enjoying the Dallas Cowboys and the Oklahoma Sooners. Our beloved Phil is survived by his two sisters, Pamela McColloch and husband Michael, cousin Doug Wright and wife Atrone, three devoted daughters, Michelle Martin, Carie Wiener and husband Matthew, and Jessica Martin and husband Cery Pope; five grandchildren, Ethan England, Jordan Wiener, William Wiener, Mason Pope and Ava Pope; wife, Marta and two stepdaughters, Monica and Maria Soffa. We will celebrate his life at 3pm on Thursday, November 12 at Firstland Coppel Chapel.

Dallas murder victim Jimmy Moreno was student at Nimitz High School in Irving

Students at Irving’s Nimitz High School are in mourning this week after junior Jimmy Moreno, 18, was gunned down during a fight outside a northwest Dallas gas station.

“He’s a young man who was really trying to graduate,” said Nimitz Principal Rick Nolly. “He had gone through some tough times earlier, but he had turned it around and was trying to graduate.”

Nolly said a mobile crisis unit was on hand earlier this week for students who needed to talk.

“We’re saddened at the loss,” Nolly said. “Our heart goes out to the family.”

As is often the case with Dallas murders, the killing appears to have been a completely senseless act.

Carlos Alberto Salazar, 19, (photo at right) was arrested on a charge of murder in the fatal shooting Monday morning in the 2200 block of West Northwest Highway. He is being held at the Dallas County Jail on $200,000 bond.

Dallas police believe a group of people who had been at a nearby club gathered at a Valero station after the club closed at 2 a.m.

A short time later, a large fight broke out between two groups. At least one witness saw Salazar and Moreno fighting each other, according to police documents.

Salazar is accused of shooting Moreno and then fleeing in a white Mercury Grand Marquis. Dallas police officers nearby who saw the gunman drive away gave chase.

They arrested Salazar after he crashed into a guardrail, police documents said. A gun was recovered from his car.

Salazar implicated himself in the killing during an interview with a Dallas police homicide detective, according to the documents. Police said Salazar is a known gang member.

Thanks to Facebook friend Kyle Morton for alerting us that Jimmy Moreno was a Nimitz student.
