The Irving Ramble November 11, 2004
In Memory of Gary J. Chappie Jr.

Last Friday, Gary Chappie Jr. went to his final rest sadly ahead of his time. He was a sensitive soul with big, bright eyes that disguised a mischievous spirit. Gary was always the idea man behind clever schemes like selling mistletoe at Christmas, reselling his beloved Final Fantasy characters or repainting his grandparents' tractor black. He was a passionate person who loved intensely. Growing up, he was inseparable from his younger brother Jimmy. He was a devoted and loyal friend, the kind that would drop everything to be there when you needed him. He had a great work ethic, a favorite of managers and co-workers, and quickly fit in wherever he was. But as often happens with restless souls, Gary had a harder time finding any place that fit him for long. He felt pain as much as joy and his happiness was always short-lived. We pray for him the peace that escaped him in this life and we will all miss him every day.

Gary is survived by his brother James Chappie, his mother Merritt Ham and husband Dan, his father Gary Chappie Sr. and wife Michelle, his grandparents Mary Jane and Jim Kohut, Diane Sewell, and many other family and friends.

Services will be held Wednesday November 3rd, 3:00 PM at Irving Bible church. 2435 Kinwest Pkwy, Irving Texas 972-560-4600

Jimmy Chavez

Posted: November 21, 2010 - 2:00am

Jimmy Chavez, 78, of Lubbock was born July 7, 1932, in Big Spring, Texas, and passed away Nov. 18, 2010 in Lubbock, Texas. He met and married his wife Felisita in Midland, Texas. They were married Aug. 14, 1950, and together built a legacy of love and power that includes 10 children, 36 grandchildren, 31 great-grandchildren and one great-great grandchild. An honest and hard-working man, he loved westerns, never turned his back on the Dallas Cowboys and had much luck on the Las Vegas strip. He was a man of faith and donated much of his time to the Catholic Church.

An avid sports fan, you could always find him tucked away in the bleachers of one of his many grandchildren's sporting events. He was a true warrior who navigated life with honor, pride and respect. He loved his wife unconditionally and managed to be an undeniable presence in the lives of all his children and grandchildren. He had a cheeky laugh and beautiful silky white hair. His spirit was indomitable. He established a successful construction company in Lubbock, Texas, in 1970 and retired multiple times from 1997-2002.

He was preceded in death by his father, Pedro Chavez, and sons, Michael and Jimmy Boy Chavez. He is not only survived by but also cherished and admired by his mother, Erlinda, 94, of Midland, Texas; his wife, Felisita, 74, of Lubbock; and his children, Elva C. Mendez, Pete Chavez, Esther Limon, Ricky Chavez, Debi Garza, Laura Smith, Tina Hernandez and Dana Espinosa.

To encapsulate a life that meant so much to so many would be impossible. He was a tremendous man and spirit and will live on in the hearts of all he has left behind. A loving son, devoted husband, honorable father and businessman and ever-present grandfather, Jimmy Chavez will be missed beyond measure. When we think about what it means to be a warrior, we don't envision a large burly man with armor on his chest running ferociously into battle; we think about this man, Jimmy Chavez. He has battled and fought and worked relentlessly his entire life to provide for his family. He is a man of faith who has given generously of himself to his church. He was cheery, mischievous, stubborn, argumentative and strong. This year, we are thankful for his 78 years of life, his indomitable spirit and unyielding faith.

His life will be celebrated with a viewing Saturday, Nov. 20 at Resthaven Funeral Home with a rosary on Sunday, Nov. 21 at 7 p.m. in Resthaven Chapel and Funeral on Monday, Nov. 22 at Our Lady of Guadalupe Church at noon. He will be laid to rest Monday, Nov. 22, 2010 at Resthaven Cemetery. Condolences may be offered at www.resthavenfuneralhome.com.

“B” (ELIZABETH RICE) COLLINS

“B” (Elizabeth Rice) Collins was born on Jan. 20, 1917, in Dallas, TX, to Sales Phelan & Lillie May Rice. She rose into heaven on April 12, 2010, at the age of 93. She passed from this life to the next, just as she lived gracefully. The youngest of 8 children, she began teaching piano lessons at the age of 13. She graduated from Woodrow Wilson High School in 1934. She married Lon Collins on Sept. 9, 1935, and they danced together for 34 years. She was a World War II working girl, from her well-dressed beginning at Neiman Marcus, until her retirement in 1987, where she ran the Houston branch of Stanley Furniture. She was a devoted mother and a loving grandmother; she was the proud matriarch of the family and the sweetest of souls; she taught us love in all things. She was the epitome of a grand lady and a strong Christian soul, sharing her faith until the week she was called to heaven. She’s remembered for her power of prayer, and her everpresent blessings at meals, wherever she was. She had an innate ability to focus on each person as an individual and make you feel special. As someone who lived through the Great Depression and into the 21st Century, she really lived! She is survived by her daughters and son-in-law: Connie Bain of Burnet, TX, and Kaye & Barry Polston of New Braunfels, TX, and also her grandchildren: Kym & Tracy Webster, Kyle Bain, Kelly & Richard Ott, Marilyn Polston & Cindy Ponce, Bud Polston & Alberto Torres, and Scott & Nicole Polston. She is “Aunt B” to countless nieces and nephews, and was blessed with lifelong friends. The family thanks the compassionate aides at Silver Oaks Senior Living in New Braunfels, who lovingly tended to their “Miss B”. Funeral services were held at 2 PM on April 19, 2010 at Brown’s Memorial Funeral Home. She supported these charities and the family encourages donations to any of them in her memory:
