Ruth Langdon

Langdon, Ruth Verhalen Ruth Verhalen Langdon, 87, was a lifelong sailor, civic volunteer, member of both the Junior Leagues of Dallas and Charlottesville, VA, League. She was a docent at the University of Virginia’s Bayley Museum and a member of the University Women’s Club. She was an overseas traveler, a student of art, history, gourmet cooking, and a bargain antique collector. The long sail from the Chesapeake Bay to St. Croix, where she once had a home, fulfilled her ocean sailing dreams. After moving back to a ranch in Texas, on the Brazos, she became a docent at the Fossil Rim Wildlife Center in Glenrose. Ruth was also the center of the Dallas branch of the Verhalen family. She died peacefully on Sunday, November 14, 2010, with her daughter and friends by her side, including her sitter/companion, Mary Brown. Mary brought her comfort, consolation, and cheer daily her last years. Her memorial service will be on Saturday, November 20th, 2010, in the North Chapel at Calvary Hill Cemetery, 3235 Lombardy Lane, Dallas, TX 75220. Born in Dallas, Texas, on November 10, 1923, to Walter Gerard Verhalen of Chicago, III and Florence Marie Hetzel of Buffalo, NY, one of six children, she grew up in one of the early homes built in Highland Park, graduated from H.P. High School, attended S.M.U. and was a member of Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority. She married and divorced twice, first to Charles Raymond Walters, Jr. the father of her children, then nearly 30 years later, to Dr. Robert Langdon, M.D., chair of the Biochemistry department at University of Virginia. She moved back to Dallas after her divorce from Langdon in 2001. Ruth was preceded in death by her son Scott Walters and her brothers Walter Verhalen, Jr. and Paul Verhalen. She is survived by her sister, Sue Verhalen Padgett, brothers Robert and Peter Verhalen; her daughter, China (Anne) Galland, and her son, Christopher Walters; her grandchildren: Madelon Verhalen Galland, Benjamin Sayer Galland, Matthew Walters Galland, Adrianne Walters, and Scott Charles Walters. Great-grandchildren Clovis Collier, Elijah and Skyler Galland, River, Sebastian, and Phoebe Rose Galland, Hannah and Nathaniel Walters, as well as numerous cousins, nieces and nephews. The family requests that in lieu of flowers, donations be made to Faith Presbyterian Hospice, 6100 Colwell Blvd., Suite 225 Irving, TX 75039, 972/401-9090 in memory of Ruth Verhalen Langdon.

Edmond M. LeRoux | Visit Guest Book

LeRoux, Edmond M. Edmond M. LeRoux of Argyle passed away on August 29, 2010. He was born on September 5, 1918 in Martintown, Ontario, Canada. He moved with his parents and five siblings in 1923 to become citizens in upstate New York, settling in North Bangor, N.Y. He graduated from Franklin Academy in Malone, N.Y. after attending North Bangor Union School. He enlisted in the United States Army in 1937 but was honorably discharged due to a childhood injury to his left hand. His love of aviation began at age 10 while spending a summer on an uncle’s farm in Massena, NY, where a barnstorming pilot kept his plane and Edmond helped serve the plane and was rewarded with several rides. In his early twenties, he purchased his first small plane. He attended Lincoln School of Aviation in Lincoln, NE, obtaining an Airframe and Engine mechanic’s license in 1938. During World War II, he worked for Curtis-Wright in Buffalo, NY, which manufactured P-40 and C-46 planes that played an important role in the war. He became a member of the Civil Air Patrol of Massena, NY, earning the rank of Major. In 1944, he began working for American Airlines in Texas and retired in 1981 as a flight engineer. During that time, he flew all over the United States. From 1968 to 1972, American Airlines took part in the Military Airlift Command (MAC), which flew U.S. troops to and from South Vietnam. During his time in MAC, he flew all over the Far East, including South Vietnam, Hawaii, Okinawa, Thailand, Japan, South Korea, and Australia. After retirement, he volunteered at the C. R. Smith Aviation Museum where he was able to serve in flight uniform as host to many guests including his grandchildren. He is a 32nd degree Mason and has been recognized as a member of that organization and Scottish Rite for over 50 years. He married Joyce Cude Ballard in 1954, at the First Baptist Church of Dallas and became a member of that church in 1965. He took one week of his vacation for many years to help at First Baptist’s Junior Camp under the direction of Miss Millie Kohn and, later, Ms. Jane Mason. Services for Lindsey Lear will be Tuesday at Plymouth Park Baptist

Lindsey Lear had lots of friends. They all were praying for her and left heartwarming messages on her Facebook page. But now those prayers have turned into remembrances. The 21-year-old student at UNT and Irving High graduate did not survive injuries she sustained in a car crash last week.

Brown’s Memorial Funeral Home is handling the arrangements. The family will receive friends from 5 to 7 p.m. today at Brown’s, 717 N. MacArthur Blvd. A funeral service will be at 10 a.m. Tuesday at Plymouth Park Baptist Church, 1714 N. Story Road. Burial will follow at Oak Grove Memorial Gardens.

Lindsey is survived by her father Pat Lear and wife Marv Jo, mother Lori Lear, brother Tyler and sister Megan, and grandparents Dick and Jolene Lear and Mary Lou Devers.

Memorials may be made in Lindsey’s name to the Irving Schools Foundation scholarship fund.
