Travis never met a stranger and began dozens of lifelong friendships with a nod of his head, a grin as big as

Texas and a simple, "What's up, Dude! My name is Travis!" Travis somehow managed to pack a hundred years of living into his short life. He was taken from us much too soon and will be missed by all. But, fear not, he will be waiting for us at the gates of heaven with those sparkling blue eyes and never ending smile. Rest in peace, my darling son. We will walk hand in hand again someday. You will be in our hearts forever
