Mary Kathryn Lively Clyatt, of Irving, passed away peacefully, surrounded by family, Friday, March 4, 2011. She fought a long, courageous fight against COPD. She was born in Irving on January 15, 1923 to Leo L. and Mary Fields Lively. Her family was early settlers, dating back to the 1850’s. Her great-grandfather built the first school, her mother was Irving’s first music teacher. She was an excellent student and a cheerleader at Irving High with 50 in her class. She continued her education at the University of Texas. She married the love of her life, Bill Clyatt, November 8, 1943 and had recently celebrated their 67th anniversary. She then devoted herself to her husband and their three daughters. Kathryn was a lifelong member of First United Methodist Church of Irving and was proud that five generations of her family were members. She was a founding member of the Irving Woman’s Club, a charter member of PEO chapter DV and the Heritage Society. She belonged to many bridge clubs and played for over 50 years in a couples duplicate club. They were faithful supporters of the Dallas and Irving Symphonies. They took wonderful trips with the FUMC Travel Club, traveling by train over the Canadian Rockies, visiting London, Ireland, the Caribbean, Hawaii, and more. They loved spending time at their second home in Woodland Park, CO, at the bottom of Pikes Peak Mountain. She was sassy, sweet, and had a great sense of humor. She was fiercely loyal to family and friends and was well known for her beautiful letters that she sent faithfully. She was a wife, mother, grandmother, and friend, who loved and was loved and remembered by many. Survivors include her husband Bill Clyatt of Irving, daughters Kathie Rankin and husband Dan of MARLA KAYE FOX COFFMAN, age 64, was a resident of Lewisville, Texas. Services are scheduled for 7:00 p.m., Monday, September 26, 2011 for Marla Kaye Coffman who died Wednesday, September 21, 2011 after a prolonged illness. The Reverend Joe Bailey is scheduled to officiate at Donnelly's Colonial Funeral Home Chapel in Irving.

Marla was a long time employee of the City of Irving working with the Irving Police Department’s SWAT team up until the time of retirement in 2006. Until illness prevented it, she had continued to participate in numerous police sponsored events and enjoy the many friends and ex-coworkers she met as a City of Irving career employee.

Marla was born on February 6, 1947 at Deconess Hospital in Lincoln, Illinois to Viola Ferne Fox and Lawrence Edward Fox of Waynesville, Illinois. She and her husband, Allen, came to Irving in 1973 and had lived locally since then. She maintained contact with family as well as high school and college classmates throughout her life. She was often the mistress of ceremonies at her high school reunion due to her reputation as one with a great sense of humor and quick wit.

Marla is survived by her husband, Allen Coffman of Lewisville; her son, Chris Coffman of Plano; step-children, Mark Coffman of Corsicana and Debra Coffman of Grand Prairie; and brother, Michael Fox of Denton. She will be sadly missed by friends and family.

Johnny Combs

Combs, Johnny Combs of Dallas, Tx passed away August 20, 2011 and entered the heavenly Church triumphant. He joins his Heavenly Father and a great cloud of witnesses who preceded him. He was surrounded and survived by a loving wife of 61 years, Bernice and five children, Gary Combs (Campbell, Tx.); Jean Combs, Beverly Combs, Carol Wolf (Lewisville, Tx); and Arvin Combs (Dallas, Tx.). Johnny leaves a legacy of admiration for a life lived with impeccable integrity, devotion to family and self-less love. He has received the perfect healing and a great reward in the presence of the Lord. He is eternally wealthy. Johnny was born on February 27th, 1928. He served his country honorably in the Army and later went on to 29 years of devoted service with the Highland Park I.S.D, paving the way for five children to receive college educations, an opportunity he never had himself. It was this kind of selfless devotion that marked Johnny's life. There are many things we will miss; but perhaps none more than his infectious sense of humor and deep chuckle at a story well told. Memorial Services will be Wednesday August 24th at Restland, 13005 Greenville Ave, Dallas at 9:30 A.M. A viewing will be held Tuesday, August 23rd from 6-8 P.M. Virginia Crockett

Crockett, Virginia Virginia Dee (Coyle) Crockett, known to most as 'Ginny' was born August 9, 1930 in San Francisco, CA, passed into God's loving arms on October 8, 2011 at age 81 from renal disease, surrounded by family and friends while living in Irving. A graduate of Polytechnic High in 1948 and raised in an era when she would never have gone shopping downtown San Francisco without gloves and high heels. While dancing with servicemen at The Fairmont Hotel in San Francisco she met a Navy man Gene Crockett from Dallas, they married December 28, 1952 and settled in Irving in 1958. In 1967 Gene & Ginny started Crockett Engineering and in 1973 changed the name to Crockett Southwest where she served as VP & Office Manager for many years. Without any training or college she devised the entire office accounting and bookkeeping for the company, posting it all by hand until 2000 when Ginny entered the computer age at age 70. Virginia was preceded in death by parents Charlotte Almyra & Harry Coyle; sisters Velma and Vivian; and husband Gene Crockett who passed away February 7, 2002. Survived by son Daniel Crockett & wife Becky of Buda, daughter Judy Schreck & husband Emil of Irving, who Ginny considered a son; Grandchildren Ryan Schreck & wife Heather, Colby Schreck, Holly Schreck, Chad Crockett; step-granchildren Mike, Chris & Jennifer Murphy; and Brandon Schreck & wife Laura who she also considered her grandchildren; brother Donald Coyle of Concord, CA; sister-in-law Dorothy Crockett of Meridian; and several nieces and nephews, several who considered her Grandma. Funeral services to be held 7:00 p.m., Tuesday, October 11, 2011 at Brown's Memorial Chapel.
