Services for Glenda “Aunt Da” Joyce Green, 58, of Cleburne, will be conducted at 10 a.m. Wednesday, Aug. 17, 2011, in Crosier-Pearson Cleburne Chapel. Burial will follow at Rosehill Cemetery. Visitation will be held from 6-8 p.m. Tuesday at the funeral home. You may leave condolences, view obituary and sign guestbook online at www.cpcleburne.com.

Mrs. Green passed away Friday, Aug. 12, 2011, in Fort Worth. She was born to Glen Woodrow and Brennon Maxine Mickey Jobe Hartline on Jan. 30, 1953, also in Fort Worth. Glenda married Michael Ray Green on Nov. 27, 1971, in Fort Worth. She was of the Baptist faith.

Glenda was a fun-loving lady who worked hard, expecting the best from herself and others. She was known for her generosity. It can be said that she put the needs of others above her own. Glenda took pride in making baby blankets and presenting them to others. “Aunt Da,” as many knew her, loved to shop and had a vast purse collection to prove it. To say that Glenda was family oriented is an understatement. She was devoted to her family. She had a smile that could light the darkest room. Glenda’s giving nature and angelic spirit will be missed greatly by all who knew and loved her.

She was preceded in death by her father, Glen Woodrow Hartline; mother, Brennon Maxine Mickey Utzman; and a step-brother, Jimmy Anguish.

Survivors include her husband of 39 years, Michael Green; daughter, Kim Havey and her husband, Bern; grandchildren, Britanni, Haden, Victoria and Emilee; brothers, Tommy and Ricky Hartline; nieces and nephews, Teresa, Jennifer, Debbie, Bubba, Joey, Stephanie, Cortnie, David Glen, Thad, Christian, Melissa, Tommy Jr., Little Ricky, Jessica, Diane, Eddie and Scotty; and a host of other relatives and friends.
