Valera Lanier

Lanier, Valera Age 93, of Dallas, TX, died on June 16, 2011. Valera Amort Lanier passed away peacefully on June 16, 2011. Val was born on December 28, 1917 in Shaw, OR. She attended Willamette University in Salem, OR and graduated with a BSN from the University of Portland Nursing School in 1939. Val was commissioned into the Navy Nurse Corps and stationed at the Naval Hospital in Shoemaker, CA as an Ensign. There she met a Louisiana boy and Naval Officer, Dr. Jack Lanier. Shortly after their wedding, Jack was ordered to China and then on to the Philippines where they began their marriage at Sangley Point Naval Station. After leaving the Navy, Jack and Val made Dallas their home. They raised 6 children, who remembered their Mom as the ultimate homemaker. She maintained a beautiful house, was an amazing cook, and an expert hostess. Many fond family memories were made around the dinner table as well as at the beloved lake house. As her children grew, she pursued more personal interest, such as tennis, sewing, gardening, and nursing. She is survived by her children, Jeff Lanier and wife Chrisanne, Marigny Lanier and husband Robert Maris, Camille Riddick and husband Kirk, Richard Lanier and wife Janet, Stephen Lanier and wife Tammie, Lisa Amort Lanier, and 10 wonderful grandchildren. Val will be remembered for her kind heart, her elegance, as well as for her strength and her devotion to her Catholic faith. She was greatly loved and will never be forgotten. Services will be held Tuesday, June 21 at 10 a.m., at Calvary Hill North Chapel in Dallas, TX. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the Alzheimer's Foundation at www.alz.org/greaterdallas or Our Lady of Perpetual Help Catholic School at www.olphdallas.com.

Mason Charles Latham

Latham, Mason Charles Mason Charles Latham was born in Dallas on March 6, 1995 and passed away on April 2, 2011. A life too short, though one filled with passion, curiosity and love. Mason was a sweet young man recognized by all who knew him for his never ending quest for answers and his love for building his own experiments. Mason had a dear love for and with his three sisters; Brooke, Rachel and Avery. A very special and lasting love. Mason also loved his dog Story like no other dog has ever been loved. His family and friends quickly describe him as easy going, curious, intelligent, gentle and caring. Mason was wise beyond his 16 years and most commented on his ability to discuss topics and issues with adults as if he were their peer. A quick wit, a bright smile and the gift of conversation quickly endeared him to all who spent time with him. For such a short life, he lived every day to its fullest and never looked back. Mason's zest for life was evident in his passion for sports, whether football, snowboarding or skate boarding and his innate physical talents ensured he did them exceptionally. In addition, his loving heart directed him in his kindness toward others and empathy for those who needed a friend. Mason is survived by his parents, Mark and Ellen Latham, and his three sisters; Brooke, Rachel and Avery. His family includes grandparents Diana and John Lewis, Eugene and Gloria Latham, Martha and Robert Smith, Joe and Judy Martin; aunts and uncles Mrs. Kathy Washburn, Mr. and Mrs. Mark Hutson, Ms. Carolyn Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Short, Mr. and Mrs. Scott Latham, Mr. Jeff Latham, Mr. and Mrs. David Latham, Mr. and Mrs. Mark Allison, Mr. and Mrs. Eduardo Latham, and Mr. and Mrs. Doc Weidknecht, Mr. Julia Butler, Mr. & Mrs. Nelson Smith and Dr. Taylor Smith. The Latham family will receive visitors at Sparkman/ Hillcrest Funeral Home 7405 W. Northwest Highway in Dallas, Texas from 6:00 pm to 8:00 pm Wednesday, April 6. A memorial service to celebrate Mason's exceptional life will be held on Thursday, March 7 at 2:00 pm at Saint Michael & All Angels Episcopal Church, 8011 Douglas Avenue, Dallas, Texas. A private family internment service will be held the same day. In lieu of flowers donations are being accepted in Mason Latham's name at ESD - The Lower Campus - to help children in need. Donations can be sent to Episcopal School of Dallas Lower Campus, 4344 Colgate Ave., Dallas, TX 75225 P:(214) 363-5471. Make checks payable to ESD Lower Campus, in the memo Attn: Mason C. Latham Fund. Jay Allison, Bob Beaham, Gerry Dube, Phillip Gunn, Matt Herring, HI Schendle, Chip Fichtner and Robert Deptula will serve as pallbearers.

Catherine Liguori, beloved wife, mother, grandmother, aunt, and friend, passed away at her home in Irving on Feb. 17, 2011, after a brief illness. “Catty,” as she was known to her family, was born Feb. 28, 1921, in Brooklyn, New York, to Martin and Christina Rafferty. She grew up in Brooklyn, on the same block as her future husband and constant companion of 63 years, Vinny. During WWII, Catty was an enthusiastic volunteer in the war effort, frequently visiting injured soldiers in hospitals and writing letters to family members on their behalf. After the war, she married Vinny and they raised two children, Ken and Chris, before retiring to Texas in 1978. In Irving, they made many wonderful friends and were active in numerous senior functions. Catty was an excellent homemaker who enjoyed having family and friends in her home. A selfless individual, she was happiest when she could serve others. In her later years, Catty took great joy in spending time with her granddaughters. Even until the end, she was always young at heart, with a mischievous attitude. She will be greatly missed. Catty is survived by her devoted husband, Vinny; her son, Ken, and daughter, Chris, and their spouses, Natalya and Al; three granddaughters, Emily, Claire, and Ana; and numerous nieces and nephews, all of whom she loved greatly. She was preceded in death by her parents, her sisters, Marguerite, Margie, and Rose, and brothers Jimmy and Marty. Visitation will be at Ben Brown Funeral Home in Irving from 6 p.m. to 8 p.m. on Monday and Tuesday. Recitation of the Holy Rosary will be at 7 p.m. Tuesday. Rite of Christian Burial will be held Wednesday at 10 a.m. at Holy Family of Nazareth Catholic Church in Irving, followed by burial at the DFW National Cemetery in Dallas.

She recently enrolled in improv classes at the Dallas Comedy House and was planning the next chapter of her life. With her optimistic drive and determination, there was no doubt her goals would be achieved. Alyssa’s infectious and charismatic personality insisted that those around her enjoy life as much as she did. Alyssa is survived by her parents, Cindy and Will Neinast of Coppell and Ret Little of Richardson; her sister, Jennifer Johnson and brother in law, Joshua Johnson of Katy; her brother, Bret Little of Richardson; her step-brothers, Trey and Tyler Neinast of Austin. She also leaves her maternal grandparents, Charles and Margaret Huckabee of Irving; and her paternal grandparents, Don and Peggy Little of Richardson. She is also survived by her close friends, aunts, uncles and cousins. Visitation will be held Monday, April 18, 2011, from 6-8pm at Restland Funeral Home in Dallas. Funeral services will be held Tuesday, April 19, 2011, at 2pm at the First United Methodist Church of Richardson, 503 N. Central Expressway, Richardson, TX 75080. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to the First United Methodist Church of Richardson, the American Cancer Society, or the charity of your choice, in memory of Alyssa.

Roy Lohden
(March 17, 1940 - February 18, 2011)

Roy James Lohden, a Dallas Icon, passed away at 70 years of age on February 18, 2011. He was born in Lane, Oklahoma in a log cabin with a dirt floor. Although he was born in Oklahoma, he moved to Texas as soon as he could. Roy was the second of six children. He grew up knowing the values of faith, love and hard work. Determined to have the best he could, he was never shy about working hard. Roy graduated from Sunset High School and then attended Cisco Jr. College before finishing at the University of Texas at Arlington. Before completing his education, he married and started his family while working at Lone Star Gas Company. It wasn’t long after working there that fate started him on a journey that created Dallas Demolition. Through his work ethic, Roy was able to carve out and clear countless structures throughout North Texas. He was always aware that his work was making way for the future. Roy appreciated that every day is a gift from God and he wanted to live every one of them to the fullest.

He was known for many larger than life projects in the area. Roy brought down the Saturn Missile Tower, the Mayfair Hotel, the Gibraltar Building, the Navarro Hotel, Northpark III, the Holiday Inn at Meadow, First Citizen’s Bank (Tyler, TX) and most recently the eight structures at First Baptist Church, 5 of which were imploded, just to name a few.

Roy is survived by his sister, Glenna Miller, two brothers, Buddy and Roger Lohden, wife of 43 years, Jerry Lee Lohden, 12 children: Greg (Robin) Lohden, Chris (Virginia) Brown, Tony (Tricia) Lohden, Leslie (Ed) Lee, Wendy (Walt) Baker, Chris (Tiffani) Lohden, Eric (Karen) Lohden, Sabrina (Nicolas) Delacretaz, Holly (Chad) Smith, Ashley Meyer, Sunny (Anne) Lohden, 29 grandchildren and 5 great grandchildren. He was preceded by his parents Ancle and Flossie Lohden, sister Shirley Ozment and brother Kenneth Lohden.

He was preceded by his parents Ancle and Flossie Lohden, sister Shirley Ozment and brother Kenneth Lohden. Roy James Lohden was a very generous, naturally strong businessman who never met a stranger. He was a huge animal lover, so much so that he changed from being a hunter to a preserver of God's creatures. He was a cattleman, a rancher, a gin rummy enthusiast, horse and NASCAR racing supporter. He lived life fully! But more than anything else, he was an ever present, devoted, loving husband, father, son, brother, grandfather and great grandfather who will be greatly missed and remembered fondly. Visitation will be held on Friday, February 25, 2011 from 6:00 - 8:00 pm at First Baptist Church Dallas in the sanctuary. A funeral service honoring Roy's life will be held at First Baptist Church Dallas on Saturday, February 26th at 12:00 noon. Roy will be laid to rest on the family ranch near Corsicana at the Roy J. Lohden Cemetery following the funeral service. Arrangements were made by Donnelly's Colonial Funeral Home, Irving, Texas, telephone: 972-579-1313. In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to the First Baptist Building Fund, Scottish Rite Foundation or Star Children's Charity.

Sylvia Luker, or Penny as she was known to most of us, went to be with the Lord on August 27, 2011. She has begun that glorious life with Jesus that she has longed to have for many years. Penny was a loving and faithful wife to Mark Luker for over 63 years when he passed away in 2009. She worked for the Texas State Department of Child Welfare for over 20 years and truly gave her heart to her co-workers and their charges. Penny was a wonderful and generous cook. She took food to people like others send cards. The old family Italian meals were the best. In his youth, Dr. Criswell came to our little church in Fabens, Texas to do a revival. He came home with us to eat lunch after church and we had mom’s famous Italian sauce with spaghetti and meatballs. Dr. Criswell sat down to eat and after prayer was said to ask Penny if she had any ketchup. She got the requested ketchup and placed it next to Dr. Criswell and mumbled, “Well, the least you can do is taste it before you ruin it!” That was Penny! Alzheimer’s took Penny down a road that was hard to walk, but she did it with grace and beauty. She is survived by her daughters Deanna L. Ward of Dallas, Jeannie M Hardman and husband Jack of Arlington, and Gail P. Goodwin and husband Gary of Kerrville, Texas; son Mark V. Luker of Grand Prairie; 9 grandchildren; 12 great grandchildren; and brother Vincent Rosselli. Funeral services will be held at 10:30 AM Wednesday, August 31, 2011 at Park Springs Bible Church in Arlington. Burial will follow at 1:30 PM at DFW National Cemetery in Dallas. The family will receive friends 6-8 Pm Tuesday at the funeral home. Memorial donations may be made to Alzheimer’s Association, Greater Dallas Chapter, 4144 N.
