Rachel Lucille McMahon (1921 - 2011)

Rachel Lucille McMahon "Nana," passed away Thursday, Nov. 24, 2011, in Granbury. Service: 2 p.m. Monday in Shannon Rose Hill Funeral Chapel. Rachel was born Sept. 20, 1921, to Lillie Bell Adams and Russell V. Gibson in Collinsville, Cooke County. Rachel, a self-made woman, told of being a "country girl" and pickin' cotton when she was a young girl growing up in Collinsville. First married to Edgar Lee Earnhart who was killed during World War II, she was a strong-willed lady and showed great courage raising her two sons alone in the '40s and early '50s. Then in 1954, the "widow with two sons" met and married the "widower with a daughter" and raised their children together. Their love story continued until Mac died May 8, 1991. Rachel's love of family continues today from heaven. In 1965, Rachel and Mac became involved in property management and were charter members of the Apartment Association of Tarrant County. Rachel served as the first woman president in 1979-1980 and was very active in all aspects and operations of the AATC in addition to her own property management firm, Response Property Mgmt., until 1991. She was loved and respected by all who came in contact with her. Never one to sit idly by, Rachel continued to work part time in property management until she was 84. It's impossible to reduce 90 full, productive years filled with love, to such a small space. Rachel was a member of the United Methodist Church in Handley, Benbrook and Granbury. She was preceded in death by husband, C.H. "Mac" McMahon, May 8, 1991; sons, Gerald "Jerry" Lee Earnhart, Jan. 2, 2003, and Louis Edwin "Ernie" Earnhart, Aug. 1, 2010. Survivors: Daughter, Karen Lee McMahon Smith and husband, Grady; daughters-in-law, Bea Earnhart and Charlene Earnhart; grandsons, Greg, Grant, Russ and Johnathan Earnhart; granddaughters, Elise, Stephania and Jynnifer; many others from extended families including Pete, Belinda, Angela, Michelle and Brandon; and several great-grandchildren and great-great-grandchildren.
