Nancy Kay Farina

Farina, Nancy Kay Surrounded by loving family and friends, Nancy Kay Farina passed away peacefully on Saturday, August 25, 2012, after a courageous battle with cancer. Nancy was preceded in death by her father, Joseph P. Farina and her stepfather, Burnis Deel, both of Irving. She is survived by her mother Sylvia Deel of Irving; sister Melissa Anne Farina of Dallas; brother Timothy Joseph and sister-in-law Mary Farina of Southlake; nieces Chesley and Lucy, and nephew Henry Farina of Lantana. She is also survived by numerous cousins and extended family. Nancy was born in Dallas on December 17, 1958. She attended high school at Ursuline Academy in Dallas, where she graduated in 1977. Nancy cultivated many lifelong friendships while at Ursuline, and remained a dedicated alumnus. She received her Bachelor of Arts in political science in 1981 from Southern Methodist University in Dallas. Nancy also forged lifelong bonds and friendships with many of the people whose lives she touched attending the university. In 1991, she joined the Dallas Heritage Village as Vice-President of Development and Capital Giving, a position she held until the time of her death. During her 21-year tenure she was instrumental in reviving this 1876 historical landmark for the benefit and enjoyment of the people of Texas. Spirituality was a cornerstone of Nancy’s life, and she was an active parishioner at the Episcopal Church of the Incarnation for many years. Nancy enjoyed music, art, books, politics and travel. One passion that eclipsed all others, however, was Texas Rangers baseball. Her home was filled with books, pennants and player memorabilia. She never missed a televised game and frequently attended games with friends or family. Funeral services will be held on Wednesday, August 29, 2012, at 10:00 a.m., at Church of the Incarnation, 3966 McKinney Avenue, Dallas. Reception following in church’s fellowship hall. Graveside service at 1:30 p.m. at Calvary Hill Cemetery, 3235 Lombardy Lane, Dallas. Donations may be made in Nancy’s memory to the American Cancer Society at http://www.cancer.org/index (will create a url specific to Nancy’s name) or Dallas Heritage Village at http://www.dallasheritagevillage.org/DonationsSponsorships.aspx

Nathan Kyle Flint (1977 - 2012)

Nathan Kyle Flint, 34, died Wednesday, Aug. 8, 2012, in Fort Worth. Funeral: 2 p.m. Saturday at Wade Family Funeral Home, 4140 W. Pioneer Parkway, Arlington. Memorials: Faith Home Alcohol Rehab, Box 39, Greenwood, S.C. 29648, www.faiithhomegwd.net. Nathan was born in San Jose, Calif., and had lived in Arlington for 27 years. He received his B.A. from Austin College in classical civilizations (ancient Greek/Roman history, literature, philosophy, Latin and Greek) and his second major in theater arts. He earned his MFA from UNT in documentary film. Nathan was also a certified chef from Austin's Cordon Bleu Culinary School. Nathan worked as a history/Latin teacher and cooking instructor/assistant coach at the Flint Academy of Arlington. He also worked as a chef at The Four Seasons & Renaissance Hotels in Austin and later as a chef at various nursing homes helping the elderly and finally at Shady Valley Country Club. Nathan played baseball at Arlington High School and Austin College and enjoyed basketball. He played the piano beautifully. Nathan was tender-hearted, supportive and was a very spiritual, strong Christian. However, he battled alcoholism for most of his adult life, having been hospitalized over eight times for reactions to withdrawal. He was in residential rehab twice. Thank you to Faith Home of North Carolina for providing free rehab. Throughout all of his struggles, Nathan's faith in Christ was unwavering. He was attempting to detox from alcohol so that he could enter Faith Home Rehab again. He said, "Mom, I'm going to try again." During his detox he had a seizure, hit his head and did not recover. Thank you to Medical Center of Arlington and Harris Methodist Hospital for offering tremendous compassion in such a difficult time. Nathan was preceded in death by his grandparents, Lillian Mae and Marshall Lee Flint. Survivors: Parents, John and Paula Flint; brothers, Caleb and fiancee, Lauren Campbell, and Micah and fiancee, Dominique Vaheed; niece, Taylor; grandparents, Eugene and Donna Sullivan; aunts, Christine Mooradian and husband, John, and Debi Hull and husband, Joe; uncle, Steve Sullivan and wife, Lisa; and cousins, Joe, Jack, Tony, Catherine, Sean, Todd, Dana, Kati Rose, Whitney, JoJo and T.J.
