Kathy Hammond (1953 - 2012)

Hammond, Kathy Parr Kathy Parr Hammond, born September 7, 1953, in Charlotte, NC, passed away peacefully at home in Dallas, TX, Wednesday, March 7, 2012 in the company of her family, close friends and her cat, Tabitha. Kathy's brave and quiet battle with cancer was a testament to all of her courage and determination supported by her strong faith in God. Kathy was employed as Branch Manager for the Walker Zanger showroom in Dallas, TX, where she earned a reputation for being an outstanding producer of sales, service and profits. Kathy was held in high regard by Walker Zanger management and throughout the imported stone and tile industry for her professionalism, intelligence, image and unique style. As an active Industry Partner Representative for ASID, Financial Director, 2009-2011, for the Dallas Design Community Board and Co-Chair Elect for Metrocon Expo & Conference, Kathy was always willing and eager to contribute where and when there was an opportunity. Known for her keen sense of style and color, from clothing to interior finishes and eclectic furnishings, Kathy also designed and created custom silk scarves, batik art, sterling silver jewelry, weavings, unique beaded bracelets and earrings. In her own Southern and gracious style, Kathy loved to entertain and cook creatively while giving attention to the smallest of details. Shopping for antiques, accessories, clothing, gardening, planting flowers and watching old movies were all favorite hobbies and pastimes. Kathy's laughter, love of color, charm and beauty lit up any room and will be missed by all who admired, respected, appreciated and loved her. Kathy is preceded in death by her loving father James W. Parr. She is survived by her mother Mary Frances Parr, step-mother Carole Parr, sister Mary Jane McClure, brother Vernon Parr, all in the Charlotte, NC area, and a host of Dallas friends and colleagues. Tabitha, Kathy's loving and loyal feline companion of 15 years, who is healthy, smart and animated, misses her mom and needs another quiet and loving home. Kathy's memorial service is Tuesday, March 27, at 3:00 pm, Christ United Methodist Church, 3101 Parker Rd, in Plano, TX. In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made to the Kathy Parr Hammond Scholarship Fund, c/o Sr. VP Jim Habern, Prosperity Bank, 2012 Midway Rd., Plano, TX 75093.

Bobbie Kaye Thompson Hanna, 59, of Irving, Texas, assumed her place in heaven on Sunday, February 26th after a brief, but inspiring battle with cancer. Kaye passed with her beloved family around her and the soft sounds of “Amazing Grace” sung by her beautiful nurse Natalie.

Kaye was born November 15, 1952, the youngest of 3 girls to William Irvin and Georgia Vaunita Thompson was raised in Dallas, Texas and attended Thomas Jefferson High School. Her marriage to the love of her life began on May 8, 1970 and spanned the remaining decades of her life. Most of her working years were spent in floor covering sales and she will be missed by numerous co-workers and customers. Kaye was preceded in her passing by her parents and loving sister Doris Walker. She is survived by the family she cherished so lovingly, her husband Walter Hanna, Sons Mark Jason Hanna and Michael Scott Hanna, Daughter in law Kristi Hanna and Grandchildren Aubrie Hanna, Brooks Hanna and newest little angel Ellis Hanna, son in law Joe Riggs, sister Shirley Davis and husband Jim Davis, brother in law Carl Walker and countless nieces, nephews, cousins and extended, adopted and assumed family and friends.

Kaye never met a stranger. She welcomed everyone with open arms, literally embracing almost everyone she met with a warm hug. Her legacy of love, family and strength will live on in the lives of her family and friends whom she dedicated her life most fervently to.

The family would like to give a special thanks to the doctors, nurses and staff at UT Southwestern ICU, most especially nurse Natalie who ministered to the physical, mental and spiritual needs of not just Kaye, but the entire family who had gathered to say goodbye, with such compassion and heartfelt sympathy that they made Kaye’s transition from this life to her spiritual one a peaceful and loving experience.

Kaye’s spirit touched us all. Opportunities to say goodbye will be this week at Hughes Crown Hill Funeral Home 9700 Webb Chapel, Dallas, TX 75220. Visitation will be Wed. February 29 from 5 to 8pm and funeral services will be held Thurs. March 1 at 10am.
