Sweet Isaiah Benjamin Holt arrived at 5:45 on May 9, 2012 and went home to be with our Great Redeemer at 10:39 the same evening. He was nineteen inches long, and weighed five pounds, fifteen ounces. He is survived by his parents, Alathea and Justin Holt, big brother Henry Lee Holt, grandparents Robert and Sue Sloan, Gil and Cyndi Holt, and numerous aunts, uncles and cousins. He was a beautiful baby boy, and an overwhelming source of joy and happiness in the lives of his family and friends. God answered so many prayers through his little life and through the time that he spent here with us. His family was blessed to spend almost five hours holding, talking to, and loving him. We his family are so grateful for him and for the time we had and the memories we were able to create with him while he was with us. We know that he is healed now, safe in the arms of our Lord, where we will see him again very soon. Our lives are forever changed by little Isaiah, and we know that God will do a great good through Isaiah’s life that he so graciously entrusted to us. In lieu of flowers, his parents would ask that you please make a donation in Isaiah’s name to Orphan Outreach (In Memory of Isaiah Benjamin Holt (www.orphanoutreach.org) or to support the mission work of Sarah and John Herrington through CAM International (www.caminternational.org).

Riley Pat Horan Sr. (1928 - 2012) Visit Guest Book

A bright flame of life burned its last light on Saturday, March 10, 2012, as Riley Pat Horan Sr. left this mortal world to join his beloved children, sister, and parents in paradise. He was 84. Funeral: 1 p.m. Wednesday at Arlington Funeral Home Chapel. Interment: Emerald Hills. Visitation: 6 to 8 p.m. Tuesday at Arlington Funeral Home. Born March 3, 1928, Pat was a longtime resident of Arlington before moving to Irving, Valley View and finally Rendon. Pat's life was a story in and of itself. He married his bride, Linda Kay Abney, in August of 1957; only six months after meeting for the first time at a birthday party for Pat's little brother, Jug. They went on to create a love affair that would span more than a half century. Pat was a longtime fixture in the north Texas automotive parts industry, having worked exclusively with the GM brand for nearly 40 years. He began his career working for Hooker Vandergriff in 1956 and worked at several local dealerships throughout the years. He earned a reputation as a jovial and knowledgeable parts man; always sharp with a part number and quick with a joke. There are two things aside from his family and career that Pat had a fervent passion for: horse racing and Bob Wills. He would eagerly anticipate the first Saturday in May, as the Kentucky Derby would approach. Having raised, trained, transported and raced horses himself, he would feel the excitement as thundering hooves would battle those 10 furlongs to immortality. He enjoyed lengthy conversations about who won the race in a certain year or who the current Triple Crown contender would be. As a horseman, his comprehensive knowledge of horses was a boon to any who sought out his advice with a new foal or difficult mare. Only one thing surpassed Pat's love of horses, and that was his love for the music of legendary "King of Western Swing," Bob Wills and his Texas Playboys. Having grown up in Depression Era Texas, Pat latched on to the buoyant cheerfulness of Wills' music and never let go. When Bob Wills was playing, his expression brightened and an occasional, ebullient "Ah-ha" would escape from his toothy grin. Pat could listen to the first few bars of any Wills' song and immediately tell what the song was and, oftentimes, who were the musicians playing it. His knowledge of Wills' discography could only be considered "expert" - unmatched by anyone, save the Playboys themselves. Whether it was a good-natured practical joke or a serious conversation about the merits of thoroughbred horse racing in Texas, Pat was a wonderful person to be around. His light-hearted nature was one of his most endearing qualities and those who had the good fortune to know him are certainly better for it. "I think of the past and all the pleasures we had, as I watch the mating of the dove; It was in the springtime that you said goodbye, I remember our faded love"-From "Faded Love" by Bob Wills, 1950. He was preceded in death by his parents; sister, Catherine Elwanda Horan Gober; daughter, Elizabeth Anne Horan; and son, Riley Pat Horan Jr. Survivors: Wife, Linda Kay; siblings, Claude David "Junior" Horan, Thomas Jefferson Horan, James Lawrence Horan, Margaret Ann "Sistie" Horan Bishop and Jack Franklin "Jug" Horan; children, Patricia Kay Horan Cheaney and husband, Ricky, Virginia Elaine Horan Needham and husband, Bill, Nancy Janelle Horan Place and husband, Tim, and Janice Lynn Horan Norton and husband, Rick; 20 grandchildren; and nine great-grandchildren.

Clifford Samuel "Dr. Sam" Huggins, M.D., FACS
(July 26, 1928 - June 24, 2012)

Clifford Samuel "Dr. Sam" Huggins, M.D., FACS was called home by his Lord and Savior on the afternoon of Sunday, June 24, 2012 at 83 years of age. Dr. Sam passed away at his home in Irving, Texas surrounded by his family, four months after surgery for lung cancer. He was preceded in death by his parents Clifford Burton and Burnice Mae Huggins and wife Betty Louise Huggins (d. 1989).

Dr. Sam was born July 26, 1928 in Fort Worth, Texas. He graduated from UT Southwestern Medical School in 1951 and began his medical practice as a family physician in Irving in 1952. He later joined the Navy and became a flight surgeon. After honorable discharge as a Lt. Commander, he returned to family practice in Irving. Later Dr. Sam began a residency in otolaryngology at the Dallas Veterans Affairs Hospital and upon completion, returned to Irving as an Ear, Nose and Throat specialist in 1961. He was certified by the Board of Otolaryngology and Fellow of the Academy of Otolaryngology in 1963 and Fellow of the American College of Surgery in 1965. In addition to his private practice, Dr. Sam was an assistant clinical professor in the Department of Otolaryngology at the UT Southwestern Medical School, and taught ear surgery at the Children's Medical Center in Dallas from 1961 to 2000.

Dr. Sam was a founding member of the Irving Community Hospital (now Baylor Hospital -Irving), and served as President of the Medical and Dental Staff in 1969. In 1971 he served as President of the Irving Surgical Society. Dr. Sam was Honorary Surgeon General for the State of Texas in April 2004. He and his young family were founding members of the Central Church of Christ (now the Plymouth Park Church of Christ). He retired from the practice of medicine in 2000 to pursue activities he did not have time to enjoy previously, although he continued to assist in surgeries with his former associates thru 2003.

Dr. Sam was introduced to the second love of his life, Charlene, by the day surgery nurses at Baylor-Irving Hospital who played "match-maker" and introduced them when Charlene was working as an RN in the day surgery after retiring as nurse anesthetist. They were married in 1994 and enjoyed many years together at their church activities, traveling, and enjoying time with their families. Dr. Sam's most happy moments were with his family, playing golf, singing in the church choir, and serving God. Memberships included: AMA, TMA, and Dallas County Medical Association. He served on the Board of Our Children’s House in Irving and the Irving Interfaith Clinic. At the time of his passing, Dr. Sam was a current member of (and past-President of) the Plymouth Park Church of Christ Advisory Board. Dr. Sam was a member of the Irving Symphony League and the Irving Community Theater Guild.

Dr. Sam is survived by his wife Charlene Huggins (of Irving, Texas); son James Huggins and wife Mary (of Cocoa, Florida); daughter Susan Stephenson and husband Ben (of Plano, Texas); son John Huggins, DDS and wife Renee (of Grapevine, Texas); son Jerry Huggins (of Justin, Texas) and his former wife Tammy Horner (of Hewitt, Texas); son Jeffrey Huggins and wife Rhonda (of Grapevine, Texas).

Grandchildren Jennifer and husband Ruben Diaz; Matthew Huggins; Ashley and husband Nick Landis; Samantha and husband Colby Petersen; Courtney Huggins and Paul Huggins; Christopher Huggins, DPT and wife Samantha; Cory Huggins and wife Laci; Cara Huggins; Claire Barfield and husband Beau; and Connor Posey. Dr. Sam will be missed by his great grandchildren Isaac and Naomi Diaz; Seaton and Madison Huggins; and Truett Huggins. Sharing in this loss are Charlene’s sons Steven Miles and wife Shelly (of Eugene, Oregon); Daniel Miles and wife Kathy (of Mechanicsburg, Pennsylvania); Drew Miles and wife Heidi (of Silverton, Oregon) and four grandchildren, Melissa, Allison, Eli and Travis. The family of Dr. Sam gratefully acknowledges the prayers and support of their church families, the skilled nursing provided by Baylor-Irving ICU and the compassionate care provided by Faith Presbyterian Hospice.

Visitation will be at the Donnelly’s Colonial Funeral Home (Irving, Texas) on Wednesday, June 27 from 6 p.m. to 8 p.m. Funeral services will be at the Plymouth Park Church of Christ (Irving, Texas) on Thursday, June 28 at 1:00 p.m. The family will be having a private graveside internment service the morning of June 28 at Oak Grove Memorial Gardens. Officiating at the funeral will be John Ketchersid, Dr. Paul Magee and Pastor Dale Patterson. Pallbearers will include Daniel Miles, Nick Landis, James Huggins, Dr. John Huggins, Jerry Huggins, Jeffrey Huggins, Susan Stephenson and Ben Stephenson. Honorary Pallbearers will be Dr. Christopher Huggins, Cory Huggins, William Huggins and Monte Huggins. Dr. Frank Theilen, Dr. Neil Williams and Dr. Paul Magee will be eulogizing Dr. Sam.

Donations may be made to the Plymouth Park Church of Christ (1710 West Airport Freeway, Irving, Texas 75062) or the Baylor Irving Interfaith Clinic, c/o Baylor-Irving Healthcare Foundation (1302 Lane Street, Suite 100, Irving, Texas 75061).

Esther Louise Reneau Hundley
(April 20, 1933 - January 22, 2012)

ESTHER LOUISE RENEAU HUNDLEY, born April 20, 1933 in McKinney, Texas, died January 22, 2012.

"I was married for almost 62 years (February 10, 1950) to Clarence Otis Hundley, who I seldom agreed with but loved dearly. We have 3 children, David Otis Hundley (deceased 3/7/1994), Reba Kay Watenpaugh and Kathy Lea Pilgrim; sons-in-law, David Watenpaugh and Ronald Pilgrim, all of Grapevine, Texas; and a loved daughter-in-law, Kay Hundley of Sanger, Texas. We have 3 grandsons, Michael Milam and wife Katie, Devin Pilgrim, and Logan Watenpaugh; one granddaughter, Karissa Milam Fairly; and one great grandson, Weston Reneau Fairly. I have one sister, Patricia Cox, who lives near Emory, Texas. Nothing in my life means more to me than my God and my family. I pray the best for each of my family members always. I worked 2 years at General Telephone in Dallas, and then moved with my husband to San Diego. There I worked for a CPA and Ryan Aeronautical until we moved back to Dallas 5 years later. I then started and operated my own business of bookkeeping and tax preparation for the next 42 years. I thank God for my grandparents who loved and valued me as long as they lived. My life was good and I am thankful."

Service is 10 a.m., Friday, January 27 at Oak View Baptist Church, 1004 South Story Road, Irving with Dr. Jim Gerlach officiating. Visitation is 9-10 a.m. at the Church prior to the service. Burial is at 2 p.m., Friday at Cottage Hill Cemetery near Celina, Texas. Memorial contributions may be made to a charity of one’s choice.
