Angela Michelle Jamison

Jamison, Angela Michelle 12 years old, passed away on June 23, 2012 after a sudden illness. She was born on January 19, 2000 and was a lifelong Dallas resident. Angela had just finished 6th grade at The Winston School and previously attended The Shelton School. In her short life, Angela experienced more happiness and love than many people who live decades longer. Her parents and extended family adored her and her older brother Jimmy was an inseparable companion. Angela's long, flawlessly braided hair and bubbly personality made an impression that was impossible to forget. Her bright, joyful smile could light up the darkest room. She was an articulate and confident speaker, just as comfortable with adults as with her peers. Angela had remarkable creative talents and could fashion decorative items out of the most unusual materials like duct tape. Of her many interests, she especially enjoyed theater, photography and the school band. She also loved reading, jumping on the trampoline and riding her bike, Angela savored each moment of a life that ended far too soon. While those of us she left behind cannot understand her unexpected passing, we trust in God's plan and seek His comfort. Angela is survived by her loving parents James and Clara Jamison and brother James Gray Jamison Jr. (Jimmy). Also surviving are grandmothers Bertha Gray Jamison of Houston and Maria Castaneda of Colombia, uncles and aunts Bryan and Stephanie Jamison and Bruce and Martha Jamison of Houston, uncles Anastacio and Guillermo Carvajal and aunts Delfina and Maria Angela Carvajal of Colombia. Annie Lee Jourden

March 2, 1911 – October 11, 2012

Annie Lee Jourden, age 101, passed away peacefully on Thursday, October 11, 2012. She was born on March 2, 1911, in Weatherford, Texas, to Thomas C. and Ella Oliver. She was preceded in death by her husband, Lonnie W. Jourden, and her eldest daughter, Billie Sue Holland. Mrs. Jourden was a hard worker and devoted wife and mother, and was also an accomplished seamstress. She also had quite the reputation of being a top-notch vitamin sales representative – and was extremely successful in convincing most she came in contact with they were in need of “the only real vitamin”! When asked the secret to her longevity, she would always say: “God and vitamins”! One of her favorite accomplishments was the cruise she enjoyed at age 90. In 2007, at the age of 97, after residing in Phoenix, Arizona for 50+ years, she made the move back to Texas to be near her family. She resided at Emeritus at Irving, where she made a host of new friends who became additional family members, until mid-July when she moved to Avante Rehabilitation Center. Her last years were indeed enriched by the new relationships she was blessed to encounter at both Emeritus and Avante. Survivors include her son, Lonnie W. Jourdan, of Corinth, Texas, and daughter, Peggy Fry, of Tacoma, Washington, nine grandchildren, fourteen great grandchildren and eight great great grandchildren. Visitation will be on Monday, October 15, 2012, from 2-4 p.m. at Chism-Smith Funeral Home. Interment will be at Chapel of the Chimes Mortuary, in Glendale, Arizona, where her husband is also interred.
