Prayers go out to the family of David Paris, Irving Assistant Police Chief who died way to young at age 47 of a heart attack this week. His memorial service is today at 2PM. I have been amazed by the generosity of the Irving PD when "one of their own" passes away. They had special guards at the viewing, special transportation for the family and really are going out of their way for the family of a fallen leader.

He was at his home in Red Oak, with his beloved wife, Jean, his sister, Riche, and brother, Anthony, by his side. Joe was diagnosed with Sclerosing epitelioid fibrosarcoma in his right lung and melanoma cancer in his brain on March 8, 2012. While undergoing radiation treatments for the brain cancer, it was determined that the lung cancer was extremely aggressive and had spread into his liver and bones. Joe was born on September 30, 1956 to Charles Havres and Jo Ann Bright Patrick in Morton, MS. At the age of 12, Joe moved to Irving, TX with his family. Charles and Jo Ann still reside in Irving in the same family home. Joe met the love of his life, Paula Jean Weber, shortly after moving to Irving as they were neighbors. He had some of his best memories being with his adopted family The Browns. He found great comfort sitting and talking with Ma Brown. He was happiest with his friends at the Pow Wows. He loved music, all music! He always wanted music playing; music to work to, music to help Jean clean house or just to sit and relax to. He would always break out with a funny dance to hear Jean’s laughter; this was Music to his Heart and Soul. He always had time for a dance with Jean. You never saw one without the other! They are soul-mates. Joe would call their friends and have to say this is Joe, you know Jean & Joe!! They were never apart in their 37 years of marriage. They were best friends. They are One. Joe worked in the glass industry for a number of years and also as an auto mechanic. In 2005 he retired due to his disability from various injuries over the years. Anthony said Joe’s real career was that of a "tradesman extraordinaire." Joe loved to work on the home that he and Jean had which started as a simple house trailer. Using his carpentry, electrical and plumbing skills, Joe built a home that clearly shows the unique sense of style that he and Jean have. Joe and Jean both shared a love for animals and through the years have cared for and loved numerous cats, dogs, and horses. Joe has bottle fed squirrel babies, named Oscar and Louise and successfully returned them to their native environment. His faithful companion was his dog, Jack, a bull terrier.
