Becky, unexpectedly passed away in her sleep on September 23, 2013. She was known by “Becky” or “Becca” to most anyone who knew her, especially her friends and co-workers through the years. To her mother she was simply called Boo Bear or Becks. Becky was born to Linda Ferris Hardy and James Thomas Hardy on January 24, 1974 in Alpena, Michigan. Becky, her mom and sister moved to Irving, Texas when Becky was seven years old. She was a 1992 graduate from MacArthur High School in Irving, TX and a 1994 graduate from KD Studio of Applied Arts, in Dallas where she earned an Associate Degree. In addition Becky attended Southeastern Career Institute and obtained a Paralegal Certificate in 2004. After numerous back surgeries since childhood, she was forced to find another career and she was currently attending Dallas Baptist University to obtain a teaching degree. Becky is survived by the love of her life, her daughter, Madeline Kime, who she loved and cherished more than anyone else in this world and rightfully so, as Madeline was referred to as a mini-Becky by family and friends everywhere. Madeline is also known as Maddie, to her extended family at Dance Machines Dance Studio (DMDS) in Coppell, TX as well as many school friends, both in Coppell and Eulens. Becky is also survived by her mother, Linda Hardy and step-father, Mike Feyh of Coppell, TX, father and step-mother, Jim and Barb Hardy of and brother, Adam Hardy all of Traverse City, Michigan. Becky had several aunts, uncles and cousins she loved dearly that all lived in Michigan. There are no words to describe her love for the numerous friends whom she cherished while growing up in Texas. I could not begin to mention everyone in the paper but those who remained close, true friends right to the end include Jennifer (Jenna) Weeks, Melissa Carlow, Robin Rogers, Jody Rogers-Merle, Heather Baughman and Kern Langford. You each had a special place in Becky’s heart and she knew your were always there for her. One important person she felt a special bond with was her God-Daughter, Keana Gonzales from Alpena, MI; they may not have seen each other as often as Becky would have liked, but she love was always there. She considered her role as God-Mother to be one of the most important task in her life. Becky was preceded in death by her sister and best friend, Natalie Hardy, maternal grandparents, Madeline and Harry Ferris, paternal grandparents, Court and Rhea Hardy, along with and aunt and uncle from Alpena and another uncle from Traverse City, MI. Becky is scheduled to be cremated with her ashes to be in attendance at a Memorial Service to be held at Rejoice Lutheran Church, located on Sandy Lake Rd in Coppell, TX on Saturday, October 5, 2013 at 3 30PM. A luncheon will be served in the church’s dining room immediately following the service and Becky’s daughter, Madeline, has requested the service not to be a sad occasion but an uplifting celebration of Becky’s life. Everyone who has a happy memory is asked to participate in sharing with everyone at luncheon as a tribute to the significance of Becky’s short but memorable life here with all of us. This is also how Becky would want it and the way she would want these memories you have to share be a lasting memory for her daughter to remember. I know our Becky was one of the most loved people in the world, who gladly shared herself with so many friends and family members so unselfishly.

On Saturday at 1:40 PM, Mr. Kenneth Walker Hearn, born on Dec. 24, 1935 died at the age of 77 from a long illness as a result of his esophagus exploding in 2005. Only one out of nine people who have this happen even live after the surgery but he lived for 7 more years. His last few years were a struggle just to breathe because he lived with a hole in his esophagus and COPD. He was a giant in the Irving/Grand/Prairie Community of Bear Creek. He is one of the Founders of the Bear Creek Development Corporation and of the oldest Black non-profit in Irving, namely, the West Irving Improvement Association, (WIIA)., founded in 1964 and located at 3901 Jackson Street across the street from J. O Davis Elementary School. The Yellow Building as all the Blacks call it, would not be there if it were not for the work of Mr. Hearn. Mr. Hearn led and funded the effort to save the West Irving Improvement Association land when Greater Headstart of Dallas attempted to take the land from the WIIA. The baseball field right beside the Yellow Building that butts up to the Jackie Townsell Heritage Park is named The Sott-Hearn Field. It is named after Mr. Hearn. Mr. Hearn was one of the first Black members of the Irving Jaycees. He along with Ruth Paine, the landlord of Henry Lee Oswalt, helped to found the first Montessori School in Irving back in 1964. He assisted in the campaign in the early sixties to get Blacks the right to use the Irving Public Libraries. Mr. Kenneth Walker Hearn was a hero, a mentor, a friend, a father figure, a miniature Martin Luther King to so many and one of the largest landowners in the Black Community of Bear Creek.
Irving Civil Rights legend Kenneth Walker Hearn, Sr. celebration services scheduled for Saturday

Dallas native Kenneth Walker Hearn, Sr. was born on Dec. 26, 1935 and died at the age of 77 following a long illness on Saturday Jan. 12. He leaves an indelible legacy in Irving/Grand Prairie’s Bear Creek community.

When African American children visit an Irving Public Library, it is thanks in part to efforts he led in the 1960s to integrate the city’s library system. When children play baseball on the Scott-Heam Field adjacent to Jackie Townsell Heritage Park it is a field bearing his name in honor of years of service to the community by him and his entire family.

Heam was one of the founders of the West Irving Improvement Association (WIA) in 1964, the oldest Black non-profit organization in Irving. Over the years they led successful efforts to integrate the city’s schools and swimming pools and many other milestones. He also co-founded in 1997 the Bear Creek Development Corporation, where he served as a board member until resigning due to poor health last September.

"Mr. Heam was a Father, a Big Brother, a Comforter, a Friend, a Mentor, a Teacher and most importantly his life will forever be a lasting example to me of how to be a man of integrity and honor at all times,” Anthony Bond, longtime Irving community activist.

Irving City Councilman Dennis Webb is quoted in the program, "He was a major inspiration for me to serve the Bear Creek Community. He had a very simple nature and never wanted a pat on the back. He just worked for what was right.”

Hearn and his wife of 59 years, Mae Ruth, moved to community in 1958. Together they worked to make Irving a better community for all children including their son the late Kenneth Hearn, Jr. and daughter Makini.

The Celebration of Life Service is scheduled for Saturday, Jan. 19 at 11 a.m. at Rocky Springs Missionary Baptist Church on the Grand Prairie side of Bear Creek at 319 E. Shady Grove Road.
