Owen Ladewig

Ladewig, Owen Chase In loving memory of our precious angel, Owen Chase Ladewig. Owen passed on January 20, 2013 and was born January 21, 2013 at 3:48pm weighing 3lbs 9.5oz and measuring 15.7 inches in Plano, TX to Lance and Samantha Ladewig and joined sister, Katelyn Ladewig. He was our miracle baby. His birth was greatly anticipated and he was treasured through every moment of pregnancy. Every second spent with him will be a moment treasured forever.

Owen was only here a short time but brought us so much joy and happiness. Being able to hold him in our arms, touch his soft blonde hair, dress him and kiss him, hold his tiny hands and feet and feel him grip our fingers is a memory that will last a lifetime. He is immeasurably precious and we were so blessed to have him in our lives. He will live on in our hearts forever. His time here was short but is a precious gift we will treasure forever. His tiny, tiny handprints are on our hearts, he will always be our precious baby, and our lives have been changed forever for knowing him. Owen is greeted in heaven by his maternal grandfather, Phillip Felts. Owen Chase is the son of Lance and Samantha Ladewig. Owen is survived by sister, Katelyn Ladewig, half sister, Deva Treaster and Lanakaye Delgado; maternal grandmother, Jean Felts; paternal grandparents, Melvin Ladewig and Claire Hawkins; paternal great grandfather, Eugene Ladewig; uncles, Thomas Ainsworth and Brandon Ladewig; aunt, Lauren Hornsby; and numerous great aunts, great uncles and cousins. Visitation will be held at Restland Wildwood Chapel, 13005 Greenville Ave. in Dallas on Sunday, January 27, 2013 from 1-3pm. A chapel service will follow.

Arthur Lester Lang, Jr. was born in Wollaston, Massachusetts in 1925. His father, Arthur, Sr. was born in New Albany, Indiana. His mother, Ada Frances Currie was born in Cambridge, Massachusetts. His wife, Shirley (Sandy) Marie Slocum was born in Cambridge. They have three children, Stephen, Debbie and Philip all living in the DFW area and his brother Charles of Houston. In 1930, during the Great Depression, the Lang family (parents, Arthur, Charles and Nancy) moved from Massachusetts to San Antonio, Texas. Here Arthur received all of his grade and high school education. At age 8 he built his first model airplane which began his career in aeronautical engineering. At age 16 he learned to fly an airplane. In 1942 he enlisted in the US Marine Corps V-12 program designed to train engineering officers. Before he was called to active duty, he attended Texas A&M for two semesters, after which the Marines assigned him to Georgia Tech for further engineering training. During Marine boot camp health problems led to his medical discharge. He returned to Georgia Tech and earned his Bachelor of Science degree in aeronautical engineering. His first job was with McDonnell Douglas in St. Louis. After two years there he moved to Cambridge where he earned his Master of Science degree in aeronautical engineering from MIT in 1948, following which he was employed by MIT working in structural dynamics. In 1949 he met Sandy. Subsequently, both of them received Jesus Christ as their personal Savior. In 1951 Arthur, six weeks after their wedding, accepted engineering employment at Chance Vought Aircraft (later LTV) in Dallas. Sandy remained behind for four months to complete her training to become a registered nurse from Newton Wellesley Hospital in Newton, Massachusetts. After 30 years at LTV, Arthur took early retirement to pursue studies at Dallas Theological Seminary. He received his Master of Arts in Biblical Studies (MABS) in 1984. From 1985 to 1993 Arthur served as Minister of Missions at Northwest Bible Church. In this position Arthur (and Sandy) ministered to their church missionaries at home and throughout the world. This fulfilled a lifelong goal to be more involved with their missionary families. In 1995 Arthur suffered a stroke affecting his right side. However his mind was left intact and he with Sandy continued their interest in missions until Arthur’s death on August 5, 2013. The family will receive friends from 2:00 to 4:00 pm Sunday, August 11 · 2013 at Brown’s Memorial Funeral Home in Irving. Funeral Service to be held at10:30 am Monday, August 12, 2013 at Community Bible Church, 2301 Texas Drive, Irving, Texas with burial to follow at Oak Grove Memorial Gardens in Irving.

Vincent Liguori, beloved husband, father, grandfather, brother, and uncle, passed away in Irving on Nov. 13, 2013. "Vinny" was born June 1, 1922, in Brooklyn, New York, to Louis and Josephine Liguori. As a boy, he helped out in the family’s small grocery business in Brooklyn, leaving to serve his country in the Pacific during WWII as a master sergeant in the Army. After the war, he returned and married his beloved wife, Catherine, with whom he had grown up on the same block. Together, they would raise two children while Vinny worked for the city of New York as a water treatment engineer. Vinny and Cathy retired to Texas in 1978 to be closer to their children. They became active community volunteers in Irving and enjoyed the company of many new found friends. Vinny also volunteered for many years as a tax preparer helping seniors prepare their federal tax returns. Vinny was at one time a member of the Irving Silvertones and participated in the group’s performance at Carnegie Hall in New York. Following a heart attack in the 1980s, Vinny became a dedicated mall walker to maintain his heart health. Before age caught up with him in his early 90s, he had walked more than 30,000 miles. Soft-spoken and a friend to all, Vinny was a kind and generous man. He enjoyed watching football – Notre Dame was his team – but especially enjoyed visiting with his granddaughters. Vinny is survived by his son Ken, and daughter Chris, and their spouses, Natalya and Al; three granddaughters, Emily, Claire, and Ana; two sisters, Susie and Fanny; two brothers, Frank and Pat; and numerous nieces and nephews. He was preceded in death by his wife of 63 years, Catherine; his parents; and his sisters, Connie, Anna, and Josephine. Visitation will be at Brown’s Memorial Funeral Home in Irving from 6 PM to 8 PM on Monday and Tuesday. Rite of Christian Burial will be held Wednesday at 10 AM at Holy Family of Nazareth Catholic Church in Irving, followed by burial at the Dallas Fort Worth National Cemetery in Dallas.
