Vivian Ruth Arnett Holmes, age 93, died June 26, 2014, in Abilene, Texas. She was born on May 3, 1921, in Anson, Texas, daughter of James Marion Arnett and Ava Cassie Haynes Arnett. V attended Anson High School where she was senior queen, and represented Jones County at the queen’s pageant at the State Fair of Texas. She went to Texas Tech for two years, then attended the Texas State College for Women in Denton, where she was president of her dormitory, on the student council, and a member of the Chaparral Club. She married the “the love of her life”, Henry Holmes, on February 8, 1941, and they were married for fifty-four years, before Henry’s untimely death from cancer in 1995 in Irving, Texas. Prior to Henry’s death, they were residents of Irving for almost twenty years beginning in the 1970s, and were very active in their community. V majored in art history and interior design in college, although she always claimed she “majored in Henry”. She loved painting with water color, and did both the exterior and interior design of the three houses she and Henry built during their marriage. V was also an extraordinary cook, and she loved having her family over for dinner, especially at Christmas. Henry always said “V likes to go,” and the two of them traveled extensively, visiting more than twenty countries on four continents. She always said she had lived a great life, her only regret being the death of her son, Jim, of cancer in 1975. Throughout Jim’s seven year ordeal, she stayed by his side day and night, in a selfless display of love. Her favorite saying was, “Do the best you can and go on,” and she certainly did her very best, always putting her family’s needs before her own. Farewell, Mom, and may the angels in heaven sing you home. Tell Dad and Jim hi. She is preceded in death by her parents, husband, son, Jim, and her sister, Rose Evelyn Jarrell. She is survived by her other sons, Ed Holmes and wife, Suzette, of Allen, Texas, and Fred Holmes and wife, Donna, of Dallas, Texas, and daughter, Ann Taylor, and husband, Jet Taylor, of Novice, Texas, plus numerous grandchildren and great grandchildren who will miss her greatly. The family will receive her many friends from 1:00 to 2:30 PM on Monday, June 30, 2014 at Brown’s Memorial Funeral Home. Burial will follow at 3:00 PM at Oak Grove Memorial Gardens in Irving, next to her beloved Henry. The family requests that any memorials be sent to the American Cancer Society www.cancer.org or 8900 John W. Carpenter Freeway in Dallas, TX 75247.

After her parents died, Mary Lynn moved back to Waco in early 2004, and lived in her childhood home for several years. Mary Lynn found the special person in her life in fiancé, Johnnie Uptmore, when they reconnected at a Richfield Reunion in August 2011. Johnnie was her caregiver and constant companion for the entire length of her illness. He was an example of devotion and commitment that was extraordinary. Shirley Jean Simmons Hotchkiss, 71, passed from this earth to her home in heaven Sunday, Sept. 21, 2014, in Dallas County. Her four years of battling cancer have come to an end. Celebration of life: 10 a.m. Wednesday at Irving Bible Church, 2435 Kinwest Parkway, Irving. A reception will follow. Interment will be for family only. Visitation with friends will be 5:30 to 7:30 p.m. Tuesday at Bluebonnet Hills Funeral Home. Shirley was born in Dallas on July 8, 1943, to James William Simmons Jr. and Chrystine Caskey Simmons. Shirley was the third of four siblings, Rebekah Louise Simmons Farrar of Hico, Celeta Simmons Waitzer of Quanah and James W. Simmons III of Denton. Shirley was a graduate of Ursuline Academy in Dallas and of Southern Methodist University where she was a member of Zeta Tau Alpha. She married Douglas Graham Hotchkiss on Dec. 28, 1964, in the chapel at Texas A&M University. They would celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary this year. Four sons were born to this marriage. They and their families survive Shirley: Dr. Steven Douglas Hotchkiss, his wife, Lisa, and children, Brooke, Luke, and Macy of Fort Worth; Gregory Simmons Hotchkiss, his wife, Petra, and children, Joshua, Jonathan, and Lena, of Lewisville; Kenneth Glenn Hotchkiss, his wife, Molly, and children, Haley, Jacob, Abby and Taylor, of Cypress; Michael Jared Hotchkiss, his wife, Diane, and children, Susannah, Will, Bethany Shirley and Hope of Cypress. Shirley's main desire was to extend the grace to those around her that she had received from Christ. She had a passion to teach God's word and show people that Jesus is the way, the truth, and the life. As her first priority, she invested that passion in her four children and husband with intention. She was also a gifted Bible teacher and speaker for women's retreats and Bible conferences. She began a small Bible study in her home in 1985, which has continued to grow today, www.commonbondsbiblesudy.com. Shirley continued with great courage and determination to lecture each week through most of her cancer treatments. During these recent years God raised up others to take leadership positions so that CommonBond will continue according to God's plan. Shirley has shown us all how to live with joy, how to build a good marriage and how to raise children in the nurture of the Lord. And now in the last four years, she has shown us how to suffer and die with faith and not fear, with courage and not complaints, with trust and love, with peace and victory.
