David Monroe Kern (26 June 1948-12 May 2014) It is with a heavy heart and an ocean of tears that I mourn the loss of my beloved husband, David Monroe Kern. It was in the wee hours of 12 May 2014 that David passed from this world to journey on to the next. With his passing, the world lost a man of honor; a man of integrity. Dozens lost a wonderful, caring friend. I lost my best friend, my lover and my confident. No matter the situation, I could always count on David to make me laugh. And, not a single day went by when he didn't ask "Have I told you I love you today? I love you today!" David loved living on the lake (Lake Vilbig). He loved all his friends from the "hood" and he really loved fishing (and, we all know he was quite the competitor). His favorite time for being out on the lake was early in the morning; the sun just rising, a thermos of hot coffee, saltine crackers and Vienna sausage. His world was good! David loved spring-it was his favorite time of year: everything coming back to life after sleeping through the winter. David loved planting and gardening and got to be quite famous for his annual tomato crop. David loved music and had an amazing sense of tone. He was an accomplished musician, although he would tell you that he simply "tried". He grew up with a passion for classical music and was an accomplished classical flutist by age eighteen. Later, his instrument of choice was the classical guitar. Several years back, he decided it was time to expand his repertoire and picked up the acoustical guitar and expanded into country music. By then, there was no stopping him. The dulcimer came next, followed by the ukulele, followed by the banjo. And every once in a while I could get him to sit down and play the piano for me. But always, always-his first love was his classical guitar. Diagnosed with IPF (Idiopathic Pulmonary Fibrosis) in 2003, David always told me that he felt blessed to have been given so many years of health before going into decline and then God blessed him further when given a new set of lungs in April. When I would ask David what was most important to him he would tell me: “To live life with honor; respect everyone; always speak the truth; and most importantly, be trustworthy." For David it did not matter how much education a person had, what job they held, or where they lived. What was important was how that person lived their life; how that person cared for family and friends. David lived his life with honor and integrity. He loved his family and he loved his friends. We all will miss him so, so much. David Monroe Kern of Irving, Texas was born 26 June 1948 in Tokyo, Japan, the son of Lawrence Eugene Kern, Jr. and Shizuchiyo Takahara Kern. He is survived by his mother; his loving wife, Carol Mullins Kern; children Erik Harrington, Kate Welder, Michael Harrington, Matthew Kern and Megan Stricklen; nine grandchildren; two siblings; numerous extended family and many, many wonderful and loving friends.

Greggory Ross Kilmer, 56, passed away on Sunday, September 14, 2014 at his home in Euless, TX. He was born January 23, 1958 in El Paso, TX. Greg graduated from Eastwood High School in 1976, and attended Texas Tech University.

Greg played football in high school and college, and was a diehard Dallas Cowboys fan. He worked in the steel industry and spent the last 20 years in the film industry as a Special Effects Technician, Foreman, and Fabricator. A few of the movies and shows he worked on were: The Alamo, Walker Texas Ranger, Prison Break, Good Guys, and most recently From Dusk Till Dawn. Greg had a passion for his work, and when he wasn’t working he gained enjoyment from being outdoors, fishing, golfing, taking care of his lawn, and playing pool volleyball with friends. He was very appropriately named, as his sense of humor and personality can easily be described as gregarious.

Everyone who knew Greg would describe him as a kind man who would give the shirt off of his back to a stranger in need. He was an animal lover and his dogs, Lucy and Cooper, held a special place in his heart.

Greg is survived by his daughter and son-in-law, Shannon Crye (Brandon); grandchildren, Madi Crye, Meagan Crye, Ashton Crye; step-father, Jerry Bear; brothers and sisters-in-law, Mark Kilmer (Cindy), Lonnie Bear (Arthi); sisters and brothers-in-law, Rosanne Orona (George), Lynn Hamilton, Jennifer Kilmer (Stefan), Leslie Turner (Darrell); 12 nieces and nephews; and a multitude of close friends. Greg was preceded in death by his mother Cecil Bear and his father George Kilmer.

A memorial will be held on Saturday, September 27th, 2014 at The Big Apple Café at 14200 Trinity Blvd., Fort Worth, Texas 76115 from 11:00 to 1:00. Greg has requested his family scatter his remains over a lake. In lieu of flowers, we ask that donations be made to The Big Apple’s Christmas with the Kids with Mission Arlington. This was a cause dear to Greg’s heart every year, and he would want us to continue supporting this in his name.

Landon Knight

Knight, Landon Patrick Landon Patrick Knight was born on November 22, 2005 in Hammond, Louisiana to Brandy Paille and Patrick Knight. His life was an inspirational journey of battles and miraculous outcomes. You would always find him smiling, and making everyone laugh with his hilarious sense of humor. He was obsessed with Monster Jam Monster Trucks and collected them by the hundreds. He would spend endless hours watching Monster Jam Racing Shows while lining up each truck to perfection. Grave Digger was his all-time favorite and he once had the chance to Skype with the owner, Dennis Anderson. He became a big superhero fan and gave himself the name “Lightning Landon.”

He and his brothers each took on a superhero role as Landon was Batman, Cullen was Spiderman, and Carter was Superman. They even dressed as these together for his last Halloween. Landon also enjoyed the outdoors. He loved 4-wheeler riding, deer hunting and fishing. His daily attire choice usually involved camouflage as was the theme of his bedroom. Landon was nothing short of a Hero to many and a Child of God. Far wiser beyond his years, he was the most loveable, unselfish and giving child. He will be dearly missed but leaves behind an amazing legacy of love, strength and inspiration. He lived by the terms of, "NEVER GIVE UP!" Spread your wings baby boy and fly high. You more than deserve your chance at a boundless life that Earth could not provide you. Please let God care for you now until mommy and daddy can again someday. Landon is survived by his mommmy and daddy, Brandy Paille-Costello and Mark Costello, as well as his little brothers Cullen Jacob and Carter Wyatt Costello. Landon is also survived by his father, Patrick Knight and his little sister Sydleigh Knight. Grandparents: Allan and Tina Paille, Sondra Vitter, Bill and Evelyn Costello, Charles and Lisa Rivers, and Perry Knight; his Aunts and Uncles: Allan Paille Jr., Katherine Vitter, BreOnna Vitter, Elizabeth Vitter, Melanie Vitter, Bridget James, Charly Rivers, Paige Knight and Lyndsey Knight, as well as numerous cousins whom he loved dearly. Karl loved sports. He was the quarterback on his football team, a competitive swimmer, the goalie on his soccer team, and the 3rd baseman on his BBI, high school, and college teams. Karl was an avid Texas Rangers fan up to the end. Survivors include his sons, Kristopher and Kurt, their mother, Suzette, and Kristopher's fiancée, Alex. His surviving siblings and families include Kathy Breeding and Archie, Kris Kober and Diane, Kurt Kober and Denise, Konrad Kober and Dawn, Kate Kober, Karen Chenoweth and Dave, Ken Kober and Julie, and nieces and nephews Jordan, Thomas, Molly, Ryan, and Nash. He also leaves behind his mentor and friend from the Salvation Army, Greg Nolan. The memorial service will be held at 1:00 p.m. on Thursday, May 8, in the chapel of Chism/Smith Funeral Home.
