Ruth Naomi Caster Allen
October 26, 1917 - October 31, 2015

Ruth Naomi Caster Allen departed this world for a better home in heaven on October 31, 2015. Her parents were William Andy Caster and Liddie Elizabeth Smith Caster, and she was born on October 26, 1917, at her parents' home in Irving.

She is survived by her two sisters, Mary Caster Rickett, of Arlington, and Eileen Caster Houck, of Irving; one brother, Charles M. Caster, of Mena, Arkansas, survive her. There are five deceased brothers: John F. Casters; William P "Buster" Caster; George Caster; Huitt D. Caster; and Ralph M. Caster.

On December 20, 1936, Ruth married Neiman Marcus Allen (deceased). She is survived by her children, Jane Allen Allen married to Bobby J Allen; Eleanor Allen Williams (married to Alex "Bud" Williams, Jr., deceased); Wayne Allen; and her daughter-in-law Nelda Davis Allen (married to Neiman Marcus Allen, Jr., deceased). She also had a son, Bobby Allen, who died when only three days old.

She is survived by 10 grandchildren and their respective spouses: Alex Williams; Chris and Karen Allen; Jayna and Rodney Wortham; Jason and Cindy Allen; Marcus and Darcie Allen; Clifford and Michelle Allen; Bradley Allen and Korie; Curtis and Sharen Allen; Dustin and Becky Allen; Eric and Kristina Allen.

She is survived by 22 great grandchildren: Karissa (husband John), Courtney, Krystal, Kayla, Kelsey, Rudy, Kyle, Kailee, Marcus, Joey, Abigail, Nathaniel, Ryleigh, Macey, Piper, Regan, Ian, Kinsley, Audrey, Annabelle, Nicholas, and Hailey.

Ruth was a resident of Irving, Texas, for 98 years. She graduated from Irving High School in 1935. She was first and foremost a loving Mother and Wife. She was involved in the PTA for all four of her children. She was a member of Chatter Box, a group who quilted by hand. She took care of her mother and grandkids when needed. She had four different grandsons live with her. She worked at elections. She belonged to the Irving Garden and Arts Club and the Book Club, and was also a member of the Eastern Stars in Irving.

Ruth has done many things at Church. One of her favorites was the years she made flower arrangements for the auditorium, chapel, and offices. She also made quilts, some of which were auctioned at the Church's chili suppers, and others she gave to family and friends. She prepared food for others whenever needed.

She was a wonderful seamstress making everything from wedding dressing, formal dresses, square dance outfits, children's clothes, and suits for women, men, and little boys. She made baby blankets for all the great grandchildren until she could no longer. She enjoyed traveling and vacations. Before her husband died, there was a family vacation every year by car. They traveled to New York and to California and many places in-between. After his death, she flew to Europe and traveled on the train while there. She went on a cruise to Alaska, and she flew to Hawaii.

Visitation will be held at the funeral home on November 5th from 6-8 pm. Funeral Services will be at 10 am on November 6th at Christ Church in Irving. Interment will follow at Oak Grove Memorial Gardens in Irving.

Kara Renee Barry Anderson

(November 8, 1978 - May 2, 2015)

Kara Renee Barry Anderson ended her hard fought battle with cancer in the early morning of Saturday, May 2, 2015. She will be remembered by a life filled with love and bringing joy to each and every person in her vibrant life. Some of the things she enjoyed most were raising her children, spending time and celebrating anything to do with family, playing slots at the casino which she was known for beating the odds, and being thrifty by finding those crazy bargains at the store.

Kara was born in Irving, Texas on November 8, 1978. She was the only girl of 5 children of Linda Hogan and James Barry. Her brothers Christopher, Eric, Adrian, and Shawn Barry will miss their sister dearly. Playing volleyball for multiple years through her educational years, Kara was an extremely athletic young lady. She later in life went back to school to get her associates degree. Her grandparents, George and Ginnette Ryon played a major role in her upbringing and values. She carried those values over into starting her wonderful family with her loving husband, Juan Anderson. She is survived by her three outstanding children, Dehvon, Alexander, Kayla, and stepdaughter, Leyiah Anderson. She will be loved and missed by all.

Services for Kara are 10:00 a.m., Monday, May 4 at Donnelly's Colonial Funeral Home Chapel, 606 West Airport Freeway in Irving with Don Hatch, Evangelist, officiating.

Maria Aranda

(December 22, 1920 - June 12, 2015)

Maria Aranda, 94, known for her enthusiastic and charismatic smile met her Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, on June 12, 2015. She was married to her life-long love, Esteban Aranda, Jr., on August 4, 1940. They created an exemplary marriage that created a loving wife until December 18, 2007, when the Lord took Esteban home. This union developed her as a loving and caring mother when she gave birth to their 3 surviving children, Ricardo Aranda, Gloria RealYVasquez and Robert Aranda, who blessed them as adoring grandparents of 10 grandchildren, 22 great grandchildren and 2 great great grandchildren. Maria was the daughter of Nazaria and Guadalupe Lucero. She was one of 9 sisters and is survived by Ernestina Mier, Ignacia Martinez and Maria Luisa Garcia. Maria leaves fond memories of her sense of humor, her love for life and her unconditional love for people. Her response to everyone who told her "I love you," was "me too, Lupe!" We know she's resting in peace. Visitation will be held on Thursday, June 18, 2015 from 5:00 PM to 9:00 PM at Mt. Carmel Funeral Home with a recitation of the rosary at 7:00 PM. Funeral mass will be held at St. Mark Catholic Church on Friday, June 19, 2015 at 10:00 AM followed by interment at Evergreen East Cemetery. Pallbearers: Robert Aranda, Sr., Robert Aranda, Jr. Damian Aranda, George RealYVasquez, Steven RealYVasquez, Arturo RealYVasquez; Honorary Pallbearers: Matthew RealYVasquez and Jeffrey RealYVasquez.

Jorge I. Piña Assaf, MD

January 26, 1943 - April 5, 2015

Jorge Ignacio Piña Assaf, 72, passed away peacefully on April 5, 2015, surrounded by his loving family.

Jorge Ignacio Piña Assaf was born January 26, 1943 in Mexico City, MX to Elena Assaf Elias and Ignacio Piña Duran. He began his medical education at the Military Medical School in Mexico City and received his medical degree from the University of Guadalajara in 1969. That same year, Jorge Piña Assaf married Maria Silvia Galindo on December 26 in Manzanillo, MX whom he had met a year earlier on June 1, 1968. On October 22 of the following year, they had their first born, Sylvia, soon after moving to El Paso, TX.

Dr. Piña specialized as a general surgeon in Wichita, KS from 1971 to 1975. During this time, they had three more children – Jorge, Lloyd, and Spencer. He and his family later moved to El Paso, TX where he taught an intensive anatomy program at the University of St. Lucia while working at a plasma center and later opened his own practice. They had their fifth child, Wesley, in 1981. Around the mid 1990s, Dr. Piña returned to practicing family medicine and relocated to Falfurrias, TX in 1998. A year later, his family settled down in Irving, TX where he worked in his beloved profession as a family doctor with Family Medical Clinic of North Dallas while also working as an on-call physician for the West Texas Counseling drug rehabilitation clinic in the Dallas/Irving area. From time to time, he also served as a ringside doctor for various MMA and boxing sporting events.

Dr. Piña was a life-long knowledge seeker and never passed up an opportunity to share his wisdom. He enjoyed reading, especially about his roots, and learning new things. He also enjoyed traveling and was able to visit several locations around the world including Europe, Turkey, Jordan, Jerusalem, Petra and Egypt. Another one of his passions was photography and photo restoration, which he would do as a hobby on his spare time, along with listening to music and tinkering with odd jobs around the house – he was very good at learning anything he set his mind to. Dr. Piña loved being involved and was always eager to help people to the best of his ability.

Dr. Piña -- loving companion, husband, father, son, brother, mentor, role model, and best friend, is survived by his wife Maria Silvia Piña, daughter Sylvia E. Gendron, sons Jorge I.C. Piña, Lloyd C. Piña, Spencer F. Piña, Wesley W. Piña and wife Yazeth, granddaughter Sophia C. Gendron, soon to be born granddaughter Elena A. Piña, his mother, five sisters, and one brother. He is loved and will be remembered always with the fondest of memories by his family and friends. Our beloved father and his comforting soul will be very sorely missed and never forgotten.

In lieu of flowers, the family is requesting a donation in memory of Jorge I. Piña, MD to the American Diabetes Association at 1-800-DIABETES or <http://diabetes.org/>.
