Martha Glynn Whitfield Hardin
(June 11, 1927 - October 3, 2015)

Martha Glynn Whitfield Hardin (lovingly known as Mimi), 88 years of age, passed away peacefully on Saturday, October 3, 2015 in Irving, Texas after a prolonged illness. She was born on June 11, 1927 in Gilmore, Texas to James Lester and Julia Irene Lindsey Whitfield.

In recent years debilities limited Martha’s involvement in favorite activities such as gardening, traveling, hosting large groups of family and their friends, crafting, and making beautiful greeting cards for every imaginable occasion (dozens of which are stored in personal treasure boxes). Nonetheless, her passions for these pastimes never left her.

To all her family, Mimi is remembered as a champion singer with the Sweet Adelines in the 1960’s who continued to sing (and especially hum) to the very end; an amazing seamstress who used her skills to supplement her young family’s income and dress her daughters like a million bucks on a working class budget; a woman of colorful style whose big jingle-jangle jewelry delighted an endless number of glamour-dreaming little girls; an avid traveler who explored the world with her husband, Dudley, after their three girls were grown; a true southern cook right down to her sweet tea; a roller-coaster riding adventurer; a lover of all things Christmas whose decorations would illicit envy from NYC Mary’s window designers; and an absolute magician with crisp paper, double-sided tape and ribbon (just ask Mr. Peppermint). As the matriarch of a large and growing family, Mimi inspired creativity, travel lust and love of the Dallas Cowboys for multiple generations. She will be deeply missed.

Martha is survived by her daughters, R. Jane Hardin and Mitzi Porter and their families, which includes son-in-law, Jeff Feigenson; eight beloved grandchildren (Julie Rabie, Russell Rabie, Jennifer Torres, Scott Rabie, Rebecca Young, Mika Hopper, Heather Davis, and Hatley Porter); seven great-grandchildren for whom her pride was boundless (Lexton Rabie, Jordan Kile, Tyler Rabie, Quinn Torres, Mayce Rabie, Hannah Gardner and Etta Hopper); and her two sisters (Sue Vittow and Kathy Flynn). She is preceded in death by her eldest daughter, Vickie Ann Rabie, and her husband of 68 years, Dudley Douglas Hardin.

A visitation will be held at Donnelly’s Colonial Funeral Home, 606 West Airport Freeway in Irving, TX from 6-8 PM, Monday, 10/5/15 with service to follow there at 11 AM, Tuesday, 10/6/15. Daniel David Hope
May 1, 1929 - August 10, 2015
Rev Daniel David Hope was born May 1, 1929, in Bartlesville, OK, to the late John K. Hope and Grace Wimberley Hope Curtis. He started at a very young age singing in a trio with his brother and sister. Dan could pick out a melody on the piano at the age of three. He became known for his soft touch and harmony. Many times he was the accompanist for Gospel artist of the day. He attended South Western Assemblies of God College in Waxahachie, TX and started his ministry as a traveling evangelist toting his trombone. He was a missionary to the Philippines, Korea, Mexico and many others. His travels were all over the world. Among them, Ghana West Africa where a school was named after him in his honor ‘Hope Institute of Theology’. He was the pastor of Faith Temple Church of Lamesa, TX and established a private school ‘Faith Christian Academy” he was President of World Bible Way Fellowship for over 38 years. Dan preceded by his brother John K Hope, his sister Mary Frances Cover, daughter, Danna Kay Hope Hale. He leaves behind his wife of 34 years, Carmel Lynn Hope, son from Austin, TX, Dan Kelly Hope, 2 grandchildren, Josef Harrison Hale and Brian Hope Hale. There is a host of nieces and nephews. Dan was a dream to live with. The very words in his music defined him and reflected what was in his heart. “Singing through the Shadows”, “Our Redeemer Liveth”, “The God of all Comfort” and many more. He was very careful with his words. Dan was slow to anger and swift to answer with a kind word. Many have said that he had an anointing of peace. When he walked in a room or on a platform he would change the atmosphere to a serene peaceful state. People are better off for knowing him. Dan demonstrated consistently all nine fruits of the Spirit. He had no gaps. (Love, Joy, Peace, Goodness, Gentleness, Kindness, Faithfulness, Long Suffering and Self Control) Dan had them all!
Marjorie Leah Houseworth, longtime Irving resident, died on December 3, 2015 at age 93 of a dissecting aortic aneurysm. She was born on February 7, 1922 in Cement, Oklahoma to William Carson and Besse Rose (Ferguson) Swarts, the first of two daughters. Longtime Irving residents may remember Marj coming into her daughters’ classrooms to show pictures and talk about their 18 month stay in Japan. She was active in PTA and Scouts, and served as sponsor in youth and children’s areas at the church. From its early years, Marj taught first grade in the church’s Day School, which expanded into the ChildCare Center, where she served as Director for over twenty years. Johnny Huckaba
(March 23, 1940 - April 28, 2015)

Johnny Huckaba, age 75, moved to Heaven Tuesday, April 28, 2015. He had a beautiful life and was loved by many here.

He was born March 23, 1940 in Franklin County, Alabama to Charlie Huckaba and Nora Montgomery Huckaba.

Growing up, he attended Belgreen School and was raised on a small farm. As a young boy they traveled by wagon, had no electricity or running water in the house, but had a life he cherished. Johnny learned to play guitar sitting on the porch, with influence and help from his dad, a fiddler. As a young teen, Johnny’s uncle Charlie Montgomery influenced his life, picking him up and taking him to Russellville Church of God and to cottage prayer meetings where Johnny played guitar and sang. He also attended Mt. Zion Baptist Church some in Russellville as a boy, because he could walk there. At age 16 he came to Texas to find work. He lived in Dallas and worked for a rubber company. He bought a guitar and black 1950 Ford and after nine months here had met his future wife, Virginia. He was homesick and went back to Alabama for a very brief time; but Virginia had become the love of his life so he had to come back to Dallas. He married Virginia McBride on April 22, 1959. Johnny and Virginia were married for 56 years and resided in Irving, Texas for over 50 years. Johnny was employed at a textile plant, Enterprise, Incorporated, for over 10 years; then owned and operated Huckaba Fence & Contracting for 45 years. Johnny was a member of Heritage Church, previously known as First Pentecostal Church of God in Irving for over 55 years. Over the years Johnny had served as Sunday School Teacher, Sunday School Superintendent and Deacon; and sang specials and played guitar at church. In 1974 Johnny, along with two women from his church, Joyce Miles and Lynda Williams started singing as a trio. They became known as the Spiritual Sounds and started singing the gospel around the area. The group became the Huckaba Family as over time Johnny’s daughter Regina became part of the trio, son Kerry began playing bass, son Brett became the drummer and daughter Shereen became part of the trio. The southern gospel group has presented the gospel in song for 41 years. Johnny was an Executive Director of the Southern Gospel Music Association of Texas, and served as an officer for many years until his death.

Over the years, Johnny was honored with Male Vocalist of the Year, Song of the Year, and named Mr. Gospel Music from Southern Gospel Music Association of Texas and fans of the Texas Gospel Music News. He wrote multiple southern gospel songs.

He was preceded in death by his parents, a sister, Betty Presley; and a brother James Huckaba. He is survived by his wife, Virginia of Irving; daughters, Regina Bestul and husband Ricky of Paris, Texas, Shereen King and husband Chris of Rockwall, Texas; sons, Kerry Huckaba and wife Teri of Hurst, Texas, Brett Huckaba and wife Samantha of Rockwall, Texas; 11 grandchildren; 4 great grandchildren; sisters, Mildred Kief and husband David, Shirley Nix and husband Dave, Peggy Smith and husband Robert, all of Alabama; brothers, Delmer Huckaba of Alabama, Elmer Huckaba and wife Stella of Irving, Texas, and Ted Huckaba and wife Sherry of Alabama; many loved nephews, nieces and cousins; and a host of precious friends. Johnny had a beautiful, meaningful life here and is now having a beautiful life in Heaven. Interment will be at Restland Memorial Park in Dallas.
