May 29, 1941 - August 9, 2015

Edward L Kelley was born on May 29, 1941 in Connecticut. He moved to Dallas, TX. Edward enlisted in the United States Navy Kitty Hawk Catapult in 1959, and served his country for four years until 1963. He married Jean Kelley in Scotland on October 12, 1964 to whom he was married for 50 years. Edward worked for the U.S. Postal Service for 37 years, retiring in 2000. Edward and Jean had three children and lived in Irving for 50 years, until her death in 2014. He remarried on June 6, 2015 to Francine Fowler.

He was a loving Christian, and a member of the Dallas and Euless Baptist Church. Edward was a jogger, and took part in several charity runs with the Gold Wing Club, which he was a member of. Edward and Jean traveled extensively all over the United States. They visited several countries in Europe, Japan and Hong Kong. He enjoyed tent and RV camping with his family, as well as tours with the Gold Wing Club. Edward was a soccer player and loved watching the World Cup. He loved music, and particularly enjoyed listening to Danny Ray, Blanson Shows, ABBA, John Wayne, westerners, and other great CD music.

Overall, he was a mentor to his children and grandchildren. Up until the moment the Lord took him to heaven, along with Francine, he was very active participating in different activities and trips around the community home. They also took part on the rec center dance.

Edward is survived by his three children, Pamela Bennett and her husband Ricky, David Kelley and his wife Mary, Paul Kelley and his wife Denise; his grandchildren, Shawn, Brett, Chad, Collin, Courtney, Grant, Andrew and Scott. He is also survived by his wife, Francine and her two daughters, Pam and Kim; his sister Mona Sload; his brother in law David with his wife Dorothy and their son Alexander; and the rest of his family and friends.

TROY KELLEY

Troy Kelley, 81, passed on to his heavenly home on March 28, 2015 after a courageous battle with cancer.

Troy was born to loving parents and was raised in Marked Tree, Arkansas, as one of 12 children on a Sharecropper's farm. In high school he earned All-State honors in football. After graduating high school, he joined the Navy. Soon afterwards, he received an honorable discharge for a previous football injury. Then he attended Arkansas State University for two years until he was drafted by the Army to serve in Korea. While training in Tacoma, Washington, he met nursing student, Bonnie Rickards, who became the love of his life - a match made in Heaven. In Korea, he entered the Army as a Private and left as a Sergeant, having been promoted quickly because of his expertise and success in radio in the DM Zone.

After his service in Korea, he began working for Ryerson Steel and married Bonnie. Early on, he was transferred to Dallas, where he and Bonnie put down roots in nearby Irving. There they raised their family. Following Ryerson Steel, Troy had numerous positions in the sales industry.

Troy was a member of Irving Bible Church. Among his community service, he served 12 years on the Irving School Board and 50 years as a member of Gideons. He was highly involved in Rotary Club, and was a board member of the Oscar Roan Ministries for 31 years. After retirement he founded Links Inc., a charity that assisted in orphanages in several countries along with other charitable works. Troy's volunteerism is too great to include. He loved people and never forgot his days of impoverished living as a sharecropper's son. He will be remembered for his godly character, loving heart, and gift of encouragement. He leaves a legacy of faith in Jesus Christ to his family and friends.

Troy is survived by his wife of 57 years, Bonnie; son, Dane Kelley; daughter Deaun McLain and husband Kerry; grandchildren Taylor and Lauren Kelley, and Madison, Connor, and Cooper McLain; brothers James and Charles and by sister Linda, plus numerous nieces and nephews.

Selflessly, Troy has gifted his remains to Southwestern Medical School in hopes that others may be helped. In lieu of flowers, contributions may be given to the Salvation Army of Irving, 250 E. Grauwylar Rd., Irving, Tx. 75061 and/or at Irving Cares, 440 S. Nursery Rd., Suite 101, Irving, Tx. 75060.

A Celebration of Life will be held at Irving Bible Church, 2435 Kinwest Parkway, Irving, on April 11th at 10:00 a.m. At the service, the family will be wearing blue. Troy's favorite color. Please feel free to join them.

Troy's admonition to you would be forget the bad, forgive all, and love more, especially God. Remember each person is God's creation and has worth; treat them with dignity.

Col. Daniel Robert Haynes of Boerne, Texas; 19 great grandchildren; 7 great-great grandchildren; and one nephew, Dr. Larry Lacy and wife, Laurel, of Austin, Texas.

Pauline was preceded in death by her beloved parents and husband; two sisters, Annabelle Titus and Jennie Titus Lacy; two brothers, Elmer Titus and Millard Titus and son-in-law Paul Reynolds. The family will receive guests during visitation at First Baptist Irving at 11 a.m. on Saturday, December 19th, and the funeral immediately following at 12 noon at First Baptist Irving. Burial will follow at Webb Hill Cemetery in Hunt County, Texas, which is the resting place of her husband and many of her relatives.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests donations be sent to the Homebound Ministry at First Baptist Church, 403 S. Main Street, Irving, Texas, 75060. Arrangements are under the direction of Donnelly's Colonial Funeral Home, 606 W. Airport Freeway in Irving.

Ruth Kinkeade

(June 8, 1918 - January 31, 2015)

Gaye Ruth Caudle Kinkeade went home to be with her Lord Jesus on January 31, 2015. Born June 8, 1918 on a farm in Mount Vernon, Texas to James and Gaye Caudle. In her teens her father died, and she and her Mom moved to Longview, Texas. With fifty dollars, the two of them built a thriving boarding house. After graduating from Longview High, Ruth went to Mary-Hardin Baylor for two years. She transferred to Baylor in 1937, and there she met the love of her life, a skinny brash preacher from Missouri. He had come to Baylor with nothing but his desire to learn to preach the Gospel. As a new convert that had never gone to church until he was nineteen, he had a long way to go. He and his new love, Ruth, would spend the next sixty-four years together where she used her mature faith to teach him the Bible, the King's English, the softer side of Southern charm, and the gentler side of effective persuasion. Together they led Texas Baptist churches in Abbott, Wellington, Dallas, Carrollton, Denton, and thirty-two years at First Baptist Church in Irving. They had three adored children: Susie Gaye Reynolds, an educator and homemaker; Dr. Hal Kinkeade, pastor of First Baptist Springtown; and Hon. Ed Kinkeade, a U. S. Judge in Dallas. She was preceded in death by her beloved husband, Dr. Henry H. Kinkeade; her parents; her brother, James Bennett Caudle; her son-in-law, Marvin Reynolds; and her grandson, Marvin Reynolds II. She is survived by her children, Susie Gaye Reynolds, Dr. Hal and Sandy Kinkeade, Judge Ed and Melissa Kinkeade; grandchildren, Steve Kinkeade, Matt Kinkeade, Laura Hughes, Leslie Reynolds, William Reynolds, Rebecca Connor, Amanda Anderson, and Brad Kinkeade; and eleven great grandchildren. She was always optimistic, cheerful, and a patient encourager. She touched hearts because she was unafraid to physically touch lives. Trained as a teacher, an elementary school in Irving is named honoring her: the Dr. Henry H. and Ruth Kinkeade Early Childhood School.

Visitation at First Baptist Irving Auditorium at 403 South Main Street, Irving, Texas from 6-8 pm on Tuesday, February 3, 2015. Service at the same location February 4, 2015 at 10 am, burial to follow at Oak Grove Memorial Gardens, 1413 East Irving Blvd., Irving, Texas 75060. Memorials may be made to First Baptist Church, Irving, Texas or Dallas Baptist University to the Dr. Henry H. Kinkeade scholarship. Services are under the direction of Donnelly's Colonial Funeral Home, 606 West Airport Freeway in Irving.

Klimko, John

May 8, 1928 - April 3, 2015

John Klimko Sr. was born on May 8, 1928 and went to be with the Lord on April 3, 2015.

John loved life and he loved people. He enjoyed working at Chance-Vaught, Ling-Tempco-Vaught, and Texas Instruments. After retiring from TI, he taught for a number of years at Dallas Christian School. Through all of his jobs, John not only enjoyed his work, but he enjoyed the people he worked with. Even later in life, John enjoyed visiting with people at any shopping mall he was at! There were truly few people who were a stranger to him!

John is survived by his beloved wife, Gin, daughter Regina and her husband Bruce from Amherst, NH, son John and his wife Liz from Valdosta, GA, son Frank of Farmersville, TX, grandsons Michael and Alex, granddaughters Katie and Carly, as well as his extended family and many other friends who loved him. John is predeceased by his son, Ralph, from Farmersville, TX, in 2014. A memorial service will be held on April 23, 2015 at 2:00pm at the Highland Oaks Church of Christ in Dallas, TX.

Dolores Marie Klonek

March 29, 1963 - February 25, 2015

Dolores Marie Klonek, has passed on to the next life peacefully on February 25, 2015. Known by many as Lola, she was a loving mother, sister, daughter, aunt and great aunt and friend. There were many that knew her and her love was never held back for the ones that she shared it with. She was a unique, thoughtful, caring, strong, and loving person, if you had something and needed it, it was yours. She was the most giving person we had ever known. Dolores doesn't leave too much in this world, as she would always say "you can't take it with you."

She was blessed with the most contagious smile, and extremely witty sense of humor. If she was in a room full of people, that room was hers through pure presence. There are no words to describe how much she will be missed, and no replacement for her kind touch. She left us with many great memories and so many inspirational quotes one of which is "if you do it right, it will turn out right."

Please forward any donations of any kind to a local epilepsy foundation. She is survived by her two children, Ernesto Varela, Jr. and Vanessa Marie Arestad. Visitation will be held from 10:00 a.m. - 5:00 p.m. on Thursday, March 5th with Funeral Mass being said following the visitation at 5:00 p.m. all here at Chism-Smith Funeral Home.
