John Triplett of Dallas, TX suddenly passed from our midst on September 12, 2015. He was 62 years old. His friends and family are saddened and will surely miss John. A very unique individual, born in Amarillo, TX in 1953 to parents Elizabeth (Lockey) and Neal Triplett. His early childhood was spent in Sherman, TX and later he moved to Dallas, TX where he graduated from Highland Park High School in 1971. He attended The University of Texas at Austin where he received a Bachelor's degree in History, graduating with honors.

John's fascination with words and language lead him on a life of travel and adventure. He lived and worked in 8 countries teaching English, meeting new friends and observing different cultures. He enjoyed the food and customs of some of the world's greatest cities throughout most of his adult years. He was most proud of writing what he described as "the quintessential English dictionary". His health began to decline in the last few years due to Type 1 diabetes he had endured from the age of 11. Increasing health problems brought John back to Dallas in 2012 where he lived with his brother and his family in Lakewood. We will all remember wonderful conversations with John involving all of his various areas of interest-music, chess, golf and tennis, astronomy, history, science. Never play "do you know this word" with John.
