

John Bloch, District 1
June 2022 – May 2025

John Bloch was elected to District 1 of the Irving City Council in June 2022 and serves on the Community Services and Planning & Development committees. He is a web software developer and currently leads the Dallas-area development team for a DC-based technology company. He has spoken at conferences around the country and worked on projects for Fortune 500 companies.

In 2008, John graduated cum laude from the University of Dallas in Irving with a B.A. in English. While a student, he was a member of UD's Chapter of Alpha Phi Omega, a national service fraternity, where John helped organize and participate in community service projects in Irving. He served as the chapter's pledgemaster and inducted the largest pledge class in the chapter's history. Since then, John has continued to serve the community by volunteering with soup kitchens, church community events, and school events.

John is married to Elizabeth Bloch and they have four children. The Blochs are parishioners at Mater Dei Catholic Parish and are active in multiple community and church ministries. When he has the time, John enjoys using his smoker and woodworking.
