

ACCREDITED FOOD HANDLER TRAINING PROGRAMS

ALL food employees (individuals working with unpackaged food, food equipment or utensils, or food-contact surfaces) must successfully complete a Texas Department State Health Services (TDSHS) or an American National Standards Institute (ANSI) accredited food handler training course. All food establishments must maintain on premises, a certificate of completion of the food handler training course for all food employees WITHIN 14 DAYS of hire

The food handler training companies listed are independently run. Each training program will have its own hours and locations. You must contact the group providing the training to schedule. The City of Irving does not provide food handler training, nor does it endorse or promote any programs listed

For a full list of programs visit www.dshs.state.tx.us/food-handlers//default.aspx
