Description

The file contains four postcards. The front of one postcard is a black-and-white photograph of Main Street, Dallas, Texas, 1907. The other three cards are of scenes of the Texas State Fair grounds. One card depicts the "Entrance to the State Fair, Dallas, Texas" in a hand-colored photograph, c. 1890s. The second card is a panorama of the Texas Centennial Exposition, 1936. This artist's rendering depicts an aerial view of the fair grounds. The third is an artist's depiction of the ground's lagoon and surrounding buildings during the 1936 Texas Centennial Exposition.
